The Financialization of Agri-Food Systems
Contested Transformations

Edited by Hilde Bjørkhaug, André Magnan and Geoffrey Lawrence
Contents

Notes on contributors viii
Preface xiii

1 Introduction: the financialization of agri-food 1
HILDE BJØRKHAUG, ANDRÉ MAGNAN AND GEOFFREY LAWRENCE

PART I
How are food and farming being ‘financialized’? 21

2 The concept of ‘financialization’: criticisms and insights 23
GEOFFREY LAWRENCE AND KIAH SMITH

3 Profit, aid and ethics in public financialization 42
HILDE BJØRKHAUG AND JOSTEIN BROBÅKK

4 Strategic financialization? The emergence of sovereign wealth funds in the global food system 62
SARAH RUTH SIPPEL, MICHAELA BÖHME AND CYNTHIA GHARIOS

5 Opening the black boxes of finance-gone-farming: a global analysis of assetization 85
STEFAN OUMA

6 Farmland values: media and public discourses around farmland investment in Canada and Australia 108
ANDRÉ MAGNAN
PART II
Financialization of the food industry
7 Riding on waves of crises: finance, food, and political tumult in Egypt
MARION W. DIXON
133
8 Financialization in Japanese agri-food regimes: uncovering the role of sogo-shosha in global soy investment
MIDORI HIRAGA
135
9 Poultry grabs and agri-food financialization: the case of JBS of Brazil
JONATHAN ALMANZA, DOUGLAS H. CONSTANCE AND FRANCISCO MARTÍNEZ
156
10 Between cooperative and private equity capital in the Norwegian food sector: how do the corporate, cultural and political environments make a difference?
REIDAR ALMÁS
176

PART III
Financialization of farming and forestry
11 Old roots, new shoots: thickening the local histories of agri-food financialization
MELANIE SOMMERVILLE
221
12 Canadian supply management as a bulwark against financialization
BRUCE MUIRHEAD AND JODEY NURSE-GUPTA
223
13 The local counterparts of financialization: organizational accomplishments of farm/land investments and sales
JANA LINDBLOOM
244
14 Financialization and the Swedish Land Acquisition Act
ELIN SLÄTMO
261
15 Institutional investment in a multi-functional forested landscape: neoliberalism and pragmatism in contemporary land conservation

STEVEN WOLF

Index

Index