CONTENTS

About the Authors ix
Preface xiii
Acknowledgments of the Editors xvii
About the Editors xix
Dedications xxix

Overview Part 1: On Leading in International Development
   Randal Jay Thompson 1

Overview Part 2: Power in International Development Leadership
   Anne M. Spear 22

1. Toward a Theory of Leading in International Development
   Julia Storberg-Walker 29

PART 1: CHALLENGES IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

2. Chronicles of a Humanitarian Worker
   David Mashzhu-Makota 57

3. Leadership in International Development
   Iyabo Obasanjo 71

4. Transforming Community through Feminine Leadership
   Élaine Ubalijoro 83
5. Embracing Modern Leadership amidst Cultural Traditions — The Niche to Forge Ahead
   Keba T. Modisane 99

PART 2: LEADERSHIP FOR WOMEN’S EMPOWERMENT AND EQUITY

6. From Marginal to Mainstream: Leadership in Integrating Gender into Private Sector Development
   Amanda Ellis 119

7. What about the Grassroots Leaders? A Model for Culturally Appropriate Leadership through Empowering Local Women
   Anne M. Spear 135

8. Leadership through Empowerment
   Nila Wardani and Kathryn B. Mangino 151

9. Leading with Girls
   Ashley N. Lackovich-Van Gorp 165

PART 3: SPIRIT-FILLED GRASSROOTS LEADERSHIP

10. Holistic Community Development in Rwanda
    Debby Thomas 183

11. Accompaniment: Facilitating Transformative Change in the World
    Josh P. Armstrong 197

12. Leading Cross Culturally in a Faith-based International Non-government Organization
    Gordon A. Zook 213

PART 4: LEADING MAJOR DONOR PROJECTS

13. In the Skin of a “Worldly” Female Doctor Manager
    Nicole Rouvinez-Bouali 231
Contents

14. Passion, Risk, and Adventure in Developing My International Development Leadership Repertoire
   Maria Beebe 247

15. An Educator’s Backward, Forward Zigzag Leadership Journey
   Patricia McLaughlin 263

16. Leading Recovery for Women and Children in Post-Ceausescu Romania
   Randal Joy Thompson 277

PART 5: LEADERSHIP LESSONS TO REFLECT ON

17. Leadership Musings
   Dick Daniels 299

18. Developing Global Resonance for Global Leadership
   Kathleen Curran 311

Index 331