IRREGULAR MIGRATION: DYNAMICS, IMPACT, POLICY OPTIONS

Edited by Dilek Çınar
August Gächter
Harald Waldrauch
Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... 7

1 Introduction: Approaches to Migrants in an Irregular Situation ........ 9
August Gächter / Harald Waldrauch / Dilek Çınar

Part I The Situation of Irregularly Resident Migrants .............................................. 29

2 Modes of Incorporation. Undocumented Migrants in an Advanced Welfare State. The Case of the Netherlands ....................... 31
Joanne P. van der Leun

3 "Sans-Papiers" in France ......................................................................................... 55
Mamadou Diouck

4 Foreign Workers Employed Illegally in Israel ....................................................... 61
Binyamin Fefferman

5 Report of the Proceedings, Part 1 ............................................................................. 77

6 Living on the Edge: Irregular Immigrants in Italy ................................................. 81
Paolo Ruspini

7 Overseas Foreign Workers in Israel:
Policy Aims and Labour Market Outcomes ...................................................... 95
Shmuel Amir

8 Preventing Violence Against Women Trafficked into Forced Prostitution .................................................................................. 111
Karl David Hutter

9 Report of the Proceedings, Part 2 ............................................................................ 123

Part II The Consequences of Irregular Migration
for the Host Country .............................................................................................. 127

10 Palestinian Workers in Israel: Patterns of Employment ............................... 129
Eran Yashiv