IntEnt95

Internationalizing Entrepreneurship Education and Training

Proceedings of the IntEnt-Conference
Edith Cowan University,
Perth/Bunbury, Australia
June 25-28, 1995
Contents

Preface V
Acknowledgements VI
Contents VII
List of Contributors XI

PART A: METHODS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION

1. Team Venture as a New Teaching and Learning Method in Entrepreneurial Education
   Tuula Mahlberg 1

2. Teaching Entrepreneurship by the Case Method
   Russell M. Knight 22

3. Applying the Entrepreneurship Life-cycle Framework to the Identification of Topic Areas for Teaching
   C. Howard Watson, Adrè B. Boshoff 36

4. The Virtual Campus - Taking the University to the Students
   Marie P. Corrigan, John M. Renner 67

5. A Total Quality Management Paradigm for Small Businesses in Training - A New Definition
   Raj Gururaian, Trish Sherwood, Rick Newby 81

PART B: ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION IN (POST-)INDUSTRIAL COUNTRIES

6. SME Courses - An International Comparison
   John H. Kelmar, Lloyd W. Fernald Jr. 91

7. Training Entrepreneurship - An Empirical Model in Sweden
   Thomas Bergqvist 102

8. The Education Programs for Policy Makers of Small and Medium-sized Enterprise and Entrepreneurship Development
   Hiroshi Teraoka 112

9. Building Entrepreneurial Awareness Amongst Youth: Value Adding in Youth
   Robyn Morris 118
10. Aboriginal Entrepreneurs - A Community Based Skills Development Model
   Larry Davies 132

11. Innovation and Entrepreneurship - A Rationale for Their Inclusion in Hospitality Management Courses and an Overview of how They are Taught in a Cohesive Course to Undergraduates
   Ian Buick 140

PART C: ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION IN TRANSITION ECONOMIES

12. Entrepreneurs in a Transition Economy - The Education Challenge
   Tobie de Coning 150

13. IITESM'S Entrepreneur Program and its Contribution to Mexico's Economic Development
   Jaime R. Silva Castan, Servulo Anzola Rojas 159

14. Tunas Bistari - A Programme for the Development of Young Entrepreneur
   Mohd Zahran Bin Mohd Ismail 167

15. Entrepreneurship in Indonesian Universities towards Free Trade in the Year 2020
   H.C.dr. Wahjoetomo, Moh Burhan 181

16. The Role of Universities in Education arid Training Entrepreneurs in Lithuania
   Vytautas Grigoras, Kestutis Grigoras 190

PART D: BACKGROUND OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION

17. Business Dynamics in the Emerging European Union and Their Implications for Enterprise Training Needs
   S.W. Creigh-Tyte, Nick Clay 201

18. Entrepreneurial "Types" for the Larger Market
   J. Hanns Pichler, Erwin A. Fröhlich 220
19. Directions for Research in Entrepreneurship
   Adré B. Boshoff, C. Howard Watson 244

   Paul D. Hannon 258

21. Innovative Environment and Entrepreneurship Development
   F. Marques Reigado 279

22. Entrepreneurial Behaviour of Women - Indian Insight
   K. Chandralekha, Dina Lavoie, N. Rajini, W. Kalyani 301

23. On the Concept of New Venture
   Dean A. Sheperd, Andrew Crouch 312

Published Proceedings of the IntEnt-Conferences 327