Collective bargaining
and the social construction
of employment

edited by
Mateo Alaluf and Carlos Prieto

European Trade Union Institute (ETUI)
Contents

Preface ............................................................ 7

David Foden and Amparo Serrano
Introduction: Collective bargaining and the social construction of employment ........................................................... 9

Alexandre Bilous and Catherine Vincent
Bargaining on working time: a key issue in France’s industrial relations ........................................................................ 25

Paul Bouffartigue and Jacques Bouteiller
Is the working time of managerial staff a clockable bargaining issue? ........................................................................ 55

Franca Alacevich and Luigi Burroni
Collective bargaining, social pacts and employment policies in Italy. Towards a new model of industrial relations? ................ 77

Carlos Prieto and Esperanza Roquero
The trade union movement and regulation of the social norm of employment in Spain: from the institutional setting to the real world .................................................................................. 103

Rainer Dombois
Collective bargaining and employment regulation in Germany - the erosion of industry-wide collective bargaining and new needs for differentiated regulation patterns ........................................ 131

Collective bargaining and the social construction of employment 5
Esteban Martínez
Collective bargaining and regulation of working time in Belgium 165

Richard Hyman
The rise and decline of collective bargaining as a mechanism of employment regulation in Britain 187

Antonio Martín Artilles and Ramón Alós-Moner
Employment pacts and collective bargaining: some hypotheses 205