DESTINATIONS UNKNOWN

Perspectives on the Brain Drain in Southern Africa

Edited by
David A. McDonald and Jonathan Crush

Africa Institute of South Africa

Southern African Migration Project
Contents

Acknowledgements ................................................................. iv
List of Contributors ................................................................ v

Introduction ........................................................................... 1
Thinking About the Brain Drain in Southern Africa
David A. McDonald and Jonathan Crush

Chapter 1 ........................................................................... 17
The Brain Drain: What Do Skilled South Africans Think?
Robert Mattes and Wayne Richmond

Chapter 2 ........................................................................... 47
Women in the Brain Drain: Gender and Skilled Migration from South Africa
Belinda Dodson

Chapter 3 ........................................................................... 73
Dealing in Scarce Skills: Employer Responses to the Brain Drain in South Africa
C.M. Rogerson and J.M. Rogerson

Chapter 4 ........................................................................... 99
The Brain Drain: An Outline of Skilled Emigration from South Africa
Mercy Brown, David Kaplan and Jean-Baptiste Meyer

Chapter 5 ........................................................................... 113
The Brain Gain and Legal Immigration to Post-Apartheid South Africa
Robert Mattes, Jonathan Crush and Wayne Richmond

Chapter 6 ........................................................................... 139
To Stay or Not to Stay: Perspectives on the Emigration Potential of Skilled Batswana
Eugene K. Campbell

Chapter 7 ........................................................................... 157
Skilled Immigrants in Botswana: A Stable But Temporary Workforce
John O. Oucho

Chapter 8 ........................................................................... 181
Migration Attitudes of Skilled Professionals in Lesotho
John Gay

Appendix A ......................................................................... 207
Aggregate Results of Interviews with Skilled Nationals

Appendix B ......................................................................... 309
Aggregate Results of Interviews with Skilled Immigrants