Table of Contents

Articles

Max Albert and Ronald A. Heiner, An Indirect-Evolution Approach to Newcomb's Problem ......................................................... 161

Wolfgang Spohn, Dependency Equilibria and the Casual Structure of Decision and Game Situations ........................................... 195

Siegfried Berninghaus, Werner Güth and Hartmut Kliemt, Reflections on Equilibrium: Ideal Rationality and Analytic Decomposition of Games ........................................ 257

Hermann Brandstätter, Werner Güth and Hartmut Kliemt, The Bounds of Rationality: Philosophical, Psychological and Economic Aspects of Choice Making ......................................................... 303

Instructions to Authors ................................................................ 357