

Manchester United

A thematic study

Edited by David L. Andrews

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

B 334871

Contents

List of illustrations	viii
List of contributors	ix
Introduction: situating Manchester United plc	1
DAVID L. ANDREWS
PART I
Becoming United	11
1 The team that wouldn't die: on the mystique of Matt Busby and Manchester United	13
STEPHEN WAGG
2 'We hate the Manchester Club like poison': the Munich disaster and the socio-historical development of Manchester United as a loathed football club	28
GAVIN MELLOR
3 From the Busby Babes to the Theatre of Dreams: image, reputation and the rise of Manchester United	43
KIRSTEN ROSAAEN AND JOHN AMIS
PART II
Economy United	63
4 Why does Manchester United keep winning on and off the field?: a case study of sustainable competitive advantage in professional team sports	65
BILL GERRARD

5	Trouble at the mill: Nike, United and the Asian garment trade	87
	ANDREW ROSS
6	Misers, merchandise and Manchester United: the peculiar paradox of the political economy of consumption	101
	CARLTON BRICK
7	Red and black: inside Manchester United's underground economy	113
	JOHN SUGDEN
PART III
	Embodied United	131
8	Where did it all go right?: George Best, Manchester United and Northern Ireland	133
	ALAN BAIRNER
9	Under the skin of Manchester United: knowing footballing bodies	147
	EILEEN KENNEDY
10	'Cute with vague feminist gender shift': Posh and Becks united	160
	PIRKKO MARKULA
PART IV
	Local United	173
11	'Manchester Is Red?': Manchester United, fan identity and the 'Sport City'	175
	ADAM BROWN
12	Love thy neighbour or a Red rag to a Blue? Reflections on the City-United dynamic in and around Manchester	190
	DAVID HAND

13 Parvenu United: local rivalries, smalltown boys and city slickers	203
ALAN TOMLINSON
14 Anfield envy: how the spirit of Liverpool hangs over Manchester United	222
GRANT FARRER
PART V
Global United	239
15 Manchester, USA?	241
TOBY MILLER
16 Memphis United?: diaspora, s(t)imulated spaces and global consumption economies	249
MICHAEL SILK AND EMMA CHUMLEY
17 For the love of England: Scandinavian football supporters, Manchester United and British popular culture	265
BO REIMER
18 'Come on Red!': an American tale	278
JIM DENISON
Index	283