Large Farm Management

Edited by
Alfons Balmann and Alexej Lissitsa

AGRIMEDIA
2003
CONTENTS

Preface ................................................................................................................................. I
Alfons Balmann, Alexej Lissitsa

Vorwort ............................................................................................................................... III
Alfons Balmann, Alexej Lissitsa

Предисловие ...................................................................................................................... VI
Альфонс Бальманн, Алексей Лисситса

A management tool to optimize total dairy farm operations ............................... 1
John R. Allison, Lane O. Ely, G. Larry Newton, Zana C. Somda

Managerial behaviour in large farms: Theoretical considerations and empirical results .................................................. 15
Katja S. Andreë, Rainer Kühl

Multi-purpose optimization of production and land use of agricultural enterprises .................................................. 29
Vladimir R. Belenkiy

A study on entrepreneurial competencies and characteristics of Dutch dairy farmers: Differences between large and small farms .......................... 52
Ron H. M. Bergevoet, Helmut W. Saatkamp, Cees M. J. van Woerkum, Ruud B. M. Huirne

Debts, subsidies and performance of Russian agricultural enterprises .................. 67
Irina Bezlepkina, Alfons Oude Lansink

Management of human resources in agriculture ....................................................... 91
Vera Bitsch
A comparative analysis of large agricultural service enterprises in the enlarged EU: Performance and efficiency
Cristina Brasili, Elisa Ricci Maccarini, Agostina Zanoli

The forms of organisation and management problems of large farms in Ukraine
Serhiy I. Demyanenko

Measuring productive efficiency of Ukrainian farms
Viktoriya Galushko, Bernhard Brümmer

On management of agro-industrial complexes
Sergey Gerasin, Olga Rodionova, Eberhard Schulze

Application of a strategic management software for large scale farms in East Germany to assess MTR impacts
Alexander Gocht, Thoralf Münch

Importance of whole-farm risk management on large farms
Ruud Huirne, Miranda Meuwissen, Marcel van Asseldonk

Connections between virtual and real large-scale agricultural enterprises
Kovács Gergely, Nagy István, Táncsics István

Estimation model of strategic partnership effectiveness of large farms
Irena Łacka

International competitiveness of large-scale farms in Ukraine
Oksana Luka

Implementation of strategic planning on farm businesses: Lessons from Danish projects
Mogens Lund, Johannes Christensen

The role of human capital in transition agriculture
Erik Mathijs

Weather derivatives to hedge production risk and labour arrangements: How risk and livelihood strategies impact on decisions of large farms
Ernst-August Nuppenau
Financial management in farms: Does size matter? .......................... 301
Martin Odening

The balanced scorecard as a tool of strategic management and the prospects of using it in large farms ................................................................. 316
Michal Pietrzak

Changes in the structure and management of Ukrainian large farm enterprises .......................................................... 326
Elena Protchenko, Nikolai Pugachov

Strategic and transnational management of Greenhouse firms ............ 343
Jo Wijnands, Christien Ondersteijn

Large farms in the United States and Germany – A comparative study – ...................................................................................... 362
Hans-Wilhelm Windhorst