THE CARIBBEAN ECONOMY

A Reader

edited by Dennis Pantin

Ian Randle Publishers
Kingston • Miami
TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS ................................................................. ix

INTRODUCTION ........................................................................ xiii

PART A: HOW DOES THE CARIBBEAN ECONOMY WORK?

Section 1: Theoretico-Historical Perspectives

1. W. Arthur Lewis The Industrialisation of the British West Indies ................. 5
2. Lloyd Best A Model of Pure Plantation Economy ....................................... 44
3. George Beckford Social Costs of Plantations:
   Resource Misallocation in Plantation Economy ......................................... 58
4. George Beckford Possibilities for Change and Transformation ..................... 76
5. William Demas The Political Economy of the English Speaking Caribbean...... 88
6. Dudley Seers The Mechanism of an Open Petroleum Economy ..................... 111

Section 2: The Traditional Commodity-Based Export Sectors

8. Dennis Pantin, Wayne Sandiford and Michael Henry Cake, Mama Coca or?
   Alternatives Facing the Caribbean Banana Industry .................................... 131
9. Clive Thomas The Inversion of Meaning:
   Trade Policy and the Caribbean Sugar Industry ....................................... 165
10. Carlile Pemberton and Sarojini Ragbir Cocoa and Coffee in Trinidad and Tobago — Recent History and Future Prospects ...................... 188
11. Dennis Pantin and Justin Ram The Determinants of Market Trends in the Off-shore Oil Refining Industry in the Caribbean ..................................... 223
12. Justin Ram Rates of Return: Can Natural Resources Sustain Wealth? ............ 234

PART B: SOCIO-ECONOMIC IMPACTS OF THE CARIBBEAN ECONOMY?

Section 3: Macroeconomic Performance

13. Victor Bulmer-Thomas The Wider Caribbean in the 20th Century:
    A long-run development perspective ..................................................... 257
14. Norman Girvan Reinterpreting the Caribbean .......................... 304
15. Recent Caribbean Economic Performance ............................. 319
16. Pitou van Dijck The Suriname Economy in a Regional Perspective .......................... 329
17. Pedro J. Rivera Guzmán From Bootstrap to Bootless: Lessons of the Puerto Rican development experience .......................... 343

Section 4: Impact on Youth and the Informal Economy

20. Dennis Pantin Revisiting the Challenge of Youth Employment in the Caribbean ................. 412
21. Michael Witter The Informal Economy of Jamaica .......................... 434

PART C: HOW THE CARIBBEAN ECONOMY OUGHT TO WORK

Section 5: Heterodox Policy Perspectives

23. Havelock Brewster and Clive Thomas A Strategy for the Economic Integration of the West Indies .......................... 479
24. CARICOM Macroeconomic Policy Coordination and Convergence ....... 507
26. Nelson Foote Iceland as a model for other Island Nations .......................... 541
27. Dennis Pantin Industrial Policy in the Caribbean in a Time of Liberalisation, Globalisation and Regional Blocs .......................... 546
28. Dennis Pantin Governance in Natural Resource Based Rentier Economies in the Caribbean .......................... 560

Section 6: The Rise of New Service-Based Export Industries in the Caribbean

29. Wendell Samuel Migration and Remittances: A Case study of the Caribbean .................. 571
32. Keith Nurse The Caribbean Music Industry: Case Studies of Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago .......................... 637
33. Jerome McElroy Managing Sustainable Tourism in the Small Island Caribbean .......................... 650
Section 7: Vulnerability and Environmental Management

34. Dennis Pantin Are Small Island Developing States (SIDS) more vulnerable to natural disasters? Implications for sustainable development in the Caribbean .............................. 667
35. Tom Crowards Comparative susceptibility to natural disasters in the Caribbean ........................................ 677
36. Emily Dick-Forde Corporate Environmental Accounting:
    A review of the literature and its relevance for the Caribbean. ............... 695
37. Anthony Clayton Cleaner technologies:
    The implications for developing nations ...................................... 716