

Wulf Alexander Kaal

Hedge Fund Regulation by Banking Supervision

A Comparative Institutional Analysis

PETER LANG
Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften

Table of Contents

A. THE PROBLEM OF REGULATION	19
B. THE APPROACH OF THE DISSERTATION.....	21
C. HEDGE FUNDS AND HLIS	23
I. DEFINITION OF HEDGE FUNDS	23
1. The Jones Hedge Fund Model.....	26
2. The Evolution of Hedge Funds	28
II. KEY CHARACTERISTICS OF HIGHLY LEVERAGED INSTITUTIONS.....	31
1. Significant Leverage	32
2. Limited direct prudential regulation	33
3. Limited disclosure requirements	33
D. SPECIFIC PROBLEMS OF HEDGE FUNDS AND INVESTOR PROTECTION	33
E. THEORY OF REGULATION	37
I. THE THEORY OF INCOMPLETE CONTRACTS	37
II. THEORY OF REGULATION – NEW INSTITUTIONAL ECONOMICS.....	38
1. Basics of New Institutional Economics	38
a) Institutions.....	39
b) Bounded rationality	39
c) The economic paradigm	40
d) Methodological Individualism.....	40
e) Maximizing profit.....	41
f) Transaction costs.....	41
2. Differences between NIE and neo-classic Theory	42
3. Differences between Relational Contract and Classical Contract.....	43
III. INCOMPLETE CONTRACT THEORY AND MODERN INSTITUTIONALISM.....	44
1. Principal Agent Model.....	44
a) Moral Hazard	45
b) Adverse Selection	46
2. Property Rights.....	46

IV. PRUDENTIAL BANK REGULATION.....	47
F. MODEL APPROACHES TO HEDGE FUND REGULATION.....	48
I. CO-COORDINATED INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION.....	48
II. NATIONAL DIRECT REGULATION.....	49
III. INDIRECT REGULATION.....	49
IV. PRUDENTIAL HEDGE FUND REGULATION.....	50
V. HYPOTHESIS.....	51
G. REGULATORY APPROACHES.....	52
I. LONG TERM CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P.....	52
II. MEASURES IN RESPONSE TO LTCM.....	58
1. Regulatory Measures.....	58
a) U.S. Securities Exchange Commission.....	60
b) U.K. Financial Services Authority.....	61
c) Conclusion.....	62
2. Legislative Measures.....	63
a) Hedge Fund Disclosure Act 1999.....	63
b) Derivatives Market Reform Act 1999.....	64
c) Conclusion.....	64
d) International Accounting Standards Committee.....	66
e) U.S. – Financial Accounting Standard Board.....	68
f) U.K. – Accounting Standards Board, FSA.....	70
g) France.....	71
h) Conclusion.....	72
III. RULES AND REGULATION IN MAJOR HEDGE FUND JURISDICTIONS.....	73
1. Regulatory Provisions in the United States.....	74
a) Securities Laws.....	75
b) The Securities Act of 1933.....	76
(1) Private Placement Exemption - Accredited Investors.....	77
(2) Private Placement Exemption.....	78
(3) Disclosure Requirements.....	79
(4) Resale Restrictions.....	79

(5) Private Placement and Offshore Public Offerings.....	80
(6) State Legislation - Blue Sky Requirements	80
c) Securities Exchange Act of 1934.....	80
(1) Brokers-Dealers and the Issuer Exemption.....	81
(2) The Agent Exemption	81
(3) The Finder Exemption.....	82
(4) Registration	83
(5) Soft Dollaring	83
d) Investment Company Act 1940	83
(1) Section 3(c) (1) Exemption	84
(2) Section 3(c) (7) Exemption	86
(3) Registration	88
e) Investment Advisers Act of 1940	88
(1) The Adviser Exemption	88
(2) Registration	89
(3) State Law.....	91
f) The Commodity Exchange Act of 1974	92
(1) Exemptions	92
(2) Limited Relief.....	93
(3) Registration	95
g) Hot Issue Securities.....	96
h) Conclusion	96
2. Regulation in the United Kingdom	98
a) Rules and Regulations of the FSMA and FSA	100
(1) Supervision by risk assessment	100
(2) Regulated and Prohibited Activities.....	101
(3) Authorization to Carry On Regulated Activities	102
(a) Authorization Requirement – The Business Test.....	102
(b) Gaining Permission to Carry on Regulated Activities.....	104
(c) Exemptions	105
(4) Financial Promotion in the UK.....	107
(a) Real Time and Non-Real Time Financial Promotions.....	108
(b) Direct Offer Financial Promotions.....	109

(c)	Approval of Financial Promotions by a Firm.....	110
(d)	Collective Investment Schemes and Financial Promotion	110
(e)	Exemptions	111
(5)	Investment Advice.....	112
(a)	Market Abuse	113
(i)	The Regular User Rule.....	114
(ii)	Behavior.....	115
(iii)	Misuse of Information	115
(iv)	False or Misleading Impressions.....	117
(v)	Distortion	118
(vi)	Penalties for Market Abuse	119
(b)	Money Laundering.....	120
(c)	Official Listing	121
(d)	Collective Investment Schemes	121
(6)	Investment Businesses	123
(a)	Investment Management Firms.....	125
(b)	Rules on Large Exposures relating to ISD firms	127
(i)	Record Keeping	128
(ii)	Consolidated Supervision	128
(7)	Enforcement.....	129
b)	Conclusion	130
3.	Germany.....	132
IV.	REGULATORY PROPOSALS	133
1.	The Board of Governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve System.....	135
2.	Hong Kong Regulatory Framework.....	136
3.	International Organization of Securities Commissions	138
4.	Basle Committee	146
5.	Basle Committee and IOSCO joint consultative paper	148
6.	Credit Risk Management Policy Group.....	148
7.	Multidisciplinary Working Group on Enhanced Disclosure	153
8.	Committee on the Global Financial System	155
9.	International Swaps and Derivatives Association.....	155
10.	U.S. President's Working Group on Financial Markets	159

11. Hedge Fund Industry Group.....	163
12. The Report of the Financial Stability Forum.....	166
a) The Working Group Recommendations	168
b) Implementation Progress.....	169
13. Summary	171
14. Conclusion	171
H. DIRECT HEDGE FUND REGULATION	174
I. HEDGE FUND REGULATION IN THE US	177
1. SEC Requires Registration of Hedge Fund Advisers	180
a) The SEC's Rationale for Regulation	181
b) Rule 203 (b) (3) –2	183
c) Supplemental Rule Changes and SEC Reasoning	185
2. Cost-Benefit Analysis Revisited	186
a) Regulation to Prevent Investor losses from Hedge Fund Fraud	186
b) Improved Information and Compliance Controls?	189
c) Cost of Regulatory Arbitrage	191
3. A Strongly Worded Dissent.....	191
4. Another Avenue of Regulation?.....	193
II. HEDGE FUND REGULATION IN THE EU	195
1. EU Directives	196
2. Hedge Fund Regulation in the United Kingdom	199
a) Minimizing Systemic Risk	200
b) Regulation of Hedge Fund Managers.....	201
c) Retailization of Hedge Funds in the UK?	201
d) The Impact of the SEC Rule on UK Hedge Fund Regulation	202
3. Hedge Fund Regulation in Germany	203
a) Overlapping Regulatory Regimes or Pre-emption?.....	204
(1) The Old but still Valid Regime.....	204
(a) The Investment Companies Act (KAGG)	205
(b) The Foreign Investment Act (AusInvestG).....	207
(c) Strategies to Overcome Regulatory Inflexibility	208
(2) The Impact of the New Regime: Investment Modernization Act	209

(a)	The Primary Objective of the Act	209
(b)	Modernizing Hedge Fund Regulation in Germany	209
(3)	The new Investment Ordinance	212
b)	Deficits of German Hedge Fund Regulation	213
c)	Conclusion	214
I.	NORMATIVE ANALYSIS	215
I.	ANALYSIS OF MODEL APPROACHES TO HEDGE FUND REGULATION	215
1.	Co-coordinated International Co-operation	215
2.	National direct Regulation	216
3.	Indirect Regulation	217
4.	Prudential Hedge Fund Regulation	217
II.	HEDGE FUND REGULATION BY BANKING SUPERVISION	218
1.	The Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision	218
2.	The New Capital Adequacy Framework	219
a)	Key aspects of Basle II	221
(1)	Pillar 1 - minimum capital requirements	221
(2)	Pillar 2 – supervisory review process	221
(3)	Pillar 3 – market discipline	222
b)	Implementation	223
III.	CONCLUSION	223
J.	BIBLIOGRAPHY	226