

Rainer Pitschas

Trusted Governance due to Public Value Management

Public Governance in Europe between Economization and Common Weal:
A Value-Based Concept of Public Administration

PETER LANG

Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften

Contents

1. The European and American Public Administration Today -
the German Model

2. Reforms of Public Administration within the European Union:
Why do we need more Ethics in Public Service? 17

3. Professionalism in Public Administration. An Indispensable
Value for Restructuring Public Administration 35

4. What is behind New Public Management? Decentralisation in Progress and Human Resources Development: The German
Education and Training System for Public Officers as an Example 53

5. The Influence of Administrative and Government Reforms on the Change of the Command Economy to Market Economy
- the Case of the Middle and Eastern European States 73

- E-Government and Democratic Legitimacy in the Partnership-
Based European Constitutional State 87

VIII

7. New Publicness and Local Governance in the Era of Decentralisation - The Example of Germany 101
- Public Value Management. A Value-based Concept of Public
Governance between Economization and Common Weal 117