Thilo Bodenstein, Michael Bolle (eds.)

After Eastward Enlargement:
Political Economy Perspectives on a New Europe
Table of contents

Introduction

The Constitution and Related Debates
- Joanna Miksa
  - The Enlarged European Union: Between National Interests and Solidarity
  - Philipp Mohl
  - Bargaining Power within the Enlarged European Union
- Rose Marie Azzopardi
  - Enlargement and Small States in the European Union

Monetary and Fiscal Policy in the European Union
- Christian Fahrholz
  - Prospective Bargaining for Costs of Convergence in Exchange-Rate Mechanism II
- Oliver Pamp
- Jochen Blessing
  - Monetary and Fiscal Policy Interaction in EMU when Governments have Different Fiscal Preferences

Regional Integration and economic studies: case studies Latvia
- Jūlija Bašarova, Nelliya Titova
  - Distribution of Economic Activity in the Baltic States
- Ėslavs Gržibovskis
  - Latvia Towards the Economic and Monetary Union: Stabilization and Perspectives
- Jelena Popova, Olegs Tkačevs
  - On the Balassa-Samuelson Effect in Latvia

Europe and its neighbours
- Anastasia Nesvetailova
  - In the Backyard of Europe: State Capitalism and the Political Economy of Integration between Russia and Belarus
- Zerrin Torun
  - Identity: Stumbling-Block Lock in Turkish Membership to the European Union?