Piero Sraffa: The Man and the Scholar
Exploring His Unpublished Papers

Edited by
Heinz D. Kurz, Luigi L. Pasinetti and Neri Salvadori

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK
CONTENTS

Preface vii

PART I

1. The Sraffa-enigma: Introduction
   Luigi L. Pasinetti 1

2. Piero Sraffa: emigration and scientific activity (1921–45)
   Nerio Naldi 7

3. Sraffa and the Marshallian tradition
   Annalisa Rosselli 31

4. Piero Sraffa at the University of Cambridge
   Maria Cristina Marcuzzo 51

5. On a turning point in Sraffa’s theoretical and interpretative position in the late 1920s
   Pierangelo Garegnani 79

6. Removing an ‘insuperable obstacle’ in the way of an objectivist analysis: Sraffa’s attempts at fixed capital
   Heinz D. Kurz and Neri Salvadori 119

7. Joint production: triumph of economic over mathematical logic?
   Bertram Schefold 151

PART II

8. Introduction
   Neri Salvadori 181

9. Sraffa’s lectures on continental banking: a preliminary appraisal
   Marcello de Cecco 185
10. Piero Sraffa’s lectures on the advanced theory of value 1928–31 and the rediscovery of the classical approach
   Rodolfo Signorino

11. Sraffa and Wittgenstein: physicalism and constructivism
    Mathieu Marion

12. Sraffa and Gramsci: a recollection
    Giorgio Napolitano

13. Representing the production and circulation of commodities in material terms: on Sraffa’s objectivism
    Heinz D. Kurz and Neri Salvadori

14. Bringing the edition of Ricardo’s works to completion: the making of the general index, 1951–73
    Christian Gehrke

15. The comparative statics of industry-level produced-input-use in HOS trade theory
    Ian Steedman

16. Reflections on Sraffa’s legacy in economics: a review essay
    Sergio Nisticò and Giorgio Rodano

Index