Visualising Intangibles:
Measuring and Reporting in the Knowledge Economy

Edited by

STEFANO ZAMBON and GIUSEPPE MARZO
University of Ferrara, Italy

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures                      vu
List of Tables                      ix
List of Appendices                  xi
List of Contributors               xiii

Introduction: Visualising the Invisible: Measuring and Reporting on Intangibles and Intellectual Capital
Stefano Zambon and Giuseppe Marzo   1

PART 1 MEASUREMENT AND REPORTING ISSUES

1 Regulatory Changes in Accounting for Goodwill and Intangible Assets: A Study of Their First Impact on European Companies Listed on US Markets
Stefano Zambon and Vania Crosara    9

2 Intangibles and Real Options Theory: A Real Measurement Alternative?
Giuseppe Marzo                      31

3 Intangible Assets: The NextAccounting Frontier
David W. Young                      49

4 IC Statement vs. Environmental and Social Reports: An Empirical Analysis of their Convergences in the Italian Context
Michela Cordazzo                    67

PART 2 DISCLOSURE ON INTANGIBLES: VALUE RELEVANCE, SCORING AND RATING

5 On the Informational Usefulness of R&D Capitalization and Amortization
Baruch Lev, Down Nissim and Jacob K. Thomas 97
vi Visualising Intangibles

6 Scoring Company Disclosure on Intangibles: An Application of an Innovative Methodology in a European Perspective 129
   Stefano Zambon and Ilariq Bergamini

7 Credit Rating and Intangible Assets: A Preliminary Inquiry into Current Practices 165
   Adele Del Bello

PART 3 NEW PERSPECTIVES ON THE MEASUREMENT AND REPORTING OF INTANGIBLES

8 XBRL as a New Language for Business and Intangibles Reporting 193
   Kurt P. Ramin

9 The Neglected Intangible Asset: Organisational Power in the Knowledge Economy 207
   Giovanni Masino

10 Intangibles and Performance Measurement Systems in Opera Houses: Case Studies-from Italy and the United Kingdom 221
   Fabio-Donato

11 Macro Indicators of Intangible Assets and Economic Policy 241
   Patrizio Bianchi and Sandrine Labory

Index 263