Polish EU Accession in Comparative Perspective: Macroeconomics, Finance and the Government edited by

Piotr Jaworski and Tomasz Mickiewicz

School of Slavonic and East European Studies
University College London
2006
Contents

Introduction

Macroeconomics and finance after accession. Lessons for the institution building and policy

Tomasz Mickiewicz, UCL-SSEES

Piotr Jaworski, Birkbeck College

Part I. Fiscal aspects of EU accession

1. Fiscal transparency and policy rules in Poland
   Rafal Benecki, ING Bank
   Jens Hölscher, Brighton Business School University of Brighton
   Mariusz Jarmuzek, Queen Mary College University of London, CASE

2. Fiscal effects of joining the EU: Accession countries
   Malgorzata Antczak, CASE, Warsaw

Part II. Inflation, seigniorage and Central Bank independence

3. Central Bank independence and inflation performance in transition economies: New evidence from a primary data approach
   Janet Ilieva, Manchester Metropolitan University Business School
   Andros Gregoriou, Brunel University

4. From slowdown to recovery. Fluctuations of consumer and producer prices The Case of Poland (1997–2004)
   Stanisław Kluza, BGZ Bank, Warsaw School of Economics
   Mateusz Mokrogulski, BGZ Bank, Warsaw School of Economics
   Michał Ramsza, BGZ Bank, Warsaw School of Economics

5. Generation of seigniorage wealth before and after euro area accession: The case of Poland
   Jarosław Janecki, CASE, Warsaw
   Jacek Cukrowski, CASE, Warsaw

Part III. Foreign direct investment in comparative perspective

6. FDI inflows after EU accession: Drawing on the Irish experience
   Tom Giblin, University College Dublin
   Frank Barry, University College Dublin

7. EU Eastern enlargement and foreign direct investment flows
   Marzena Weresa, Warsaw School of Economics
Part IV. The insurance market and EU accession

8. The Polish insurance market – the challenge of EU accession and formal adaptation
   Piotr Jaworski, Birkbeck College
   Jaroslaw Wierzbicki, KNiFE, Warsaw School of Economics

9. The insurance sector for SMEs after Poland’s accession to the European Union
   Teresa Bednarczyk, Maria Curie Skłodowska University in Lublin