Changing functions of rural areas in the Baltic Sea Region
Contents

Introduction to the volume ............................................ 5
Sabine Baum, Peter Weingarten Developments of rural economies in the Central and Eastern Europe: an overview ................................. 7
Jerzy Bański
   The development of non-agricultural economic activity in Poland’s rural areas ................................. 31
Saulius Stanaitis
   Social, economic and demographic changes of rural areas in Lithuania ............................................................... 45
Søren Pilgaard Kristensen
   Danish rural areas: recent experiences and future trends ... 59
Józef Stanisław Zegar, Zbigniew Floriańczyk Structure of the rural population incomes in Poland before and after the accession to the European Union ............... 79
Ulf Wiberg
   Future perspectives for sparsely populated areas in Sweden ... 95
Toivo Muilu, Jarmo Rusanen
   Changes in population and industries in the rural areas of Finland:
   from analysis of administrative regions to a GIS based approach 109
Jan W. Owsieński, Aneta M. Pielak Web-based functionality of Polish self-governmental units and its effectiveness in promoting the development of rural areas .... 119
Marek Degórski
   Spatial variability of multifunctional landscape as the basis for potential differences of regional „smart growth“ of rural areas –
   the examples from Poland ........................................... 133
Elena Albertovna Romanova, Olga Leonidovna Vinogradova, Larisa Yurievna Stanchenko Structure and evolution of landscapes in connection with strategic planning of development of rural areas (on the example of the Slavsk area in the Kaliningrad district) ................................... 149