A Grammar of Organizing

Maria Bengtsson
Professor, Umeå School of Business (USBE), Sweden

Tomas Müllern
Professor, Jönköping International Business School, Sweden

Anders Söderholm
Professor, Umeå School of Business (USBE), Sweden

Nils Wählin
Associate Professor, Umeå School of Business (USBE), Sweden

Edward Elgar
Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA
Contents

1. The need for a new grammar of organizing 1
2. The orientation of activities in time and space 11
3. The challenges of coordination 36
4. Influence – taking a political stand on organizing 61
5. Identity construction – mixing cultural diversity and integration in organizing 90
6. Agreements – acknowledging the social processes of organizing 111
7. The activity–community model of organizing 139
8. Four challenges of organizing 154

References 170
Index 183