Creative Industries and Developing Countries
Voice, choice and economic growth

Edited by Diana Barrowclough and Zeljka Kozul-Wright
Contents

List of illustrations xi

PART I
Voice, choice and growth 1

1 Voice, choice and diversity through creative industries: towards a new development agenda 3
DIANA BARROWCLOUGH AND ZELJKA KOZUL-WRIGHT

PART II
Prospects and perils 37

2 Opportunities presented and threats posed by the digital production/distribution revolution 39
ROGER WALLIS

3 Financing creative industries in developing countries 65
STUART CUNNINGHAM, MARK DAVID RYAN, MICHAEL KEANE AND DIEGO ORDOÑEZ

4 Film culture and industry in Burkina Faso 111
TERESA HOEFERT DE TURÉGANO

5 The music industry and its potential role in local economic development: the case of Senegal 130
ANDY C. PRATT

6 The sounds of Brazil: the popular music and the music industry 146
JOSÉ E. CASSIOLATO, MARCELO MATOS AND HELENA LASTRES
Contents

7 The audio-visual sector in India 174
ARPITA MUKHERJEE

8 Copyright-based industries in Arab countries 193
NAJIB HARABI

9 The IPRs and the music industry in the Caribbean 213
VANUS JAMES

PART III
Policy responses 249

10 Promoting creative industries: public policies in support of film, music, and broadcasting 251
VERENA WIEDEMANN

11 Targeting creativity through the intermediary: regional and local approaches in the UK and beyond 275
TOM FLEMING

12 The policy parameters 305
ANNA JAGUARIBE

Index 330