The War between the State and the Family
How Government Divides and Impoverishes

PATRICIA MORGAN

iea
The Institute of Economic Affairs
CONTENTS

The author 8
Foreword 9
Summary 12

1 Household fragmentation and the decline of marriage 15
Lonely planet: getting away from them all 15
The retreat from marriage 18
Analysing the evidence 21

2 The economic and social consequences of atomisation 22
Atomisation in the big picture 22
Problems in life 27
Down, out and dependent: women and children 29
Down, out and dependent: men 36
What’s in the bank? 39
The family: welfare provider of first resort 41
The big distribution 44

3 The enemies of collaboration 49
Collaboration: a bad press 49
Collaboration: enemies everywhere 51
6 More of the same or a new policy approach? 135
The mounting costs 135
More of the same? 138
Something better? 142
Wider horizons 152

About the IEA 154