Education and Social Change in South Asia

edited by
KRISHNA KUMAR
and
JOACHIM OESTERHELD

Orient Longman
Contents

List of Tables vii

Notes on Contributors ix

Introduction 1

KRISHNA KUMAR AND JOACHIM OESTERHELD

PART I
Education Under Colonial Rule

1. Secular Enlightenment and Christian Conversion: Missionaries and Education in Colonial India 27
   SANJAY SETH

2. ‘Indianisation’ and Education: Reaction from Protestant Christians of the Madras Presidency to the Lindsay Commission Report 44
   HEIKE LIEBAU

3. Competing Ideas: The Quest for Knowledge in Early Twentieth-Century Travancore 74
   MARGRET FRENZ

   GEORGE OOMMEN

PART II
Education and Cultural Change

5. Education and the Process of Nation Building in Pre-Independence India: Some Theoretical Reflections 129
   ANTE LINKENBACH FUCHS

6. National Education as a Community Issue: The Muslim Response to the Wardha Scheme 156
   JOACHIM OESTERHELD
7. Education and Culture: 196
India’s Quest for a Secular Policy
KRISHNA KUMAR

8. The Idea of Women’s Education in Colonial Bengal 218
SONIA NISHAT AMIN

PART III
Education and Nation Building

9. Education and Change: 251
A Historical Perspective on Schooling,
Development, and the Nepali Nation-State
MARTHA CADDELL

Time as a Dimension of National Education in Pakistan
RUBINA SAIGOL

11. The Interface between Employment and Education 325
in India: The Need for a Discourse
PADMINI SWAMINATHAN

12. Politics of Language in Education: 359
Policies and Reforms in India
ANNE VAUGHIER-CHATTERJEE

PART IV
Education and Development

13. Modernisation, Education, and Social Justice 393
in Sri Lanka
S.T. HETTIGE

14. Education of the Masses in India: A Critical Enquiry 408
SADHNA SAXENA

15. The Privatisation of Secondary Schooling in Bijnor: 442
A Crumbling Welfare State?
ROGER JEFFERY, PATRICIA JEFFERY, CRAIG JEFFREY

16. Decentralisation of School Management 475
and Quality of Teaching
FRANÇOIS LECLERCQ

Index 505