Table of Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgements xv
Table of Cases, Awards and Reports xvii
Table of Abbreviations xxix

Introduction 1

1 Trade and environment within the GATT 11

1.1 Article I. Most-favoured-nation treatment 15
1.2 Article III. National treatment 15
   1.2.1 Article III.2. Internal taxes and charges 17
   1.2.2 Article III.4. ‘Laws, regulations and requirements’ 21
1.3 Article XI. Quantitative restrictions on imports 26
1.4 Article XX 27
   1.4.1 US–Reformulated Gasoline 29
   1.4.2 US–Shrimp/turtle 32
   1.4.3 EC–Asbestos 36
1.5 Article XXIII:1(b) 38
1.6 The WTO agreements and MEAs 40
   1.6.1 Jurisdictional overlap 41
   1.6.2 Substantive conflict 42

2 The WTO side agreements (1). The TBT and SPS Agreements 47

2.1 The TBT Agreement 47
2.2 The SPS Agreement 53
   2.2.1 EC–Beef Hormones 57
   2.2.2 Australia–Salmon 62
   2.2.3 Japan Varietals 64
3 Genetically modified organisms and the WTO agreements

3.1 The Cartagena Protocol 70
3.2 Regulation of GMOs within the EU 73
3.3 EC–Biotech 77
3.4 The aftermath of the decision 86
3.5 Conclusion 89
   3.5.1 Jurisdictional overlap between the WTO agreements and MEAs 89
   3.5.2 Jurisdictional overlap between the WTO agreements 91
   3.5.3 The ability of members to base environmental regulation on PPM criteria 92
   3.5.4 The evidential threshold applicable to the justification of measures on grounds of health or environmental protection 93
   3.5.5 The administrative obligations imposed on members in designing and implementing measures 96

4 The WTO side agreements (2). GATS, TRIMS and TRIPS

4.1 GATS 97
   4.1.1 Article VI. Domestic regulation 100
   4.1.2 Article XVI. Market access 103
   4.1.3 Article XVII. National treatment 104
   4.1.4 General exceptions 105
4.2 TRIMS 106
4.3 The TRIPS Agreement. The impact of IP rights on environmental protection 107
   4.3.1 Farmers’ rights 111
   4.3.2 Traditional knowledge 116
   4.3.3 Pharmaceuticals 122

5 Trade and the environment within the EC

5.1 Quantitative restrictions on imports and exports. Articles 28 and 29 132
5.2 Harmonisation and national measures. The general principles 137
   5.2.1 Article 95. Internal market harmonisation 139
   5.2.2 Article 175. Environmental harmonisation 142
5.3 The two justifications for violating Arts 28 and 29 146
   5.3.1 Article 30 146
5.3.2 The 'rule of reason' and mandatory requirements 147
5.3.3 Proportionality 148
5.4 Distinctly and indistinctly applicable measures 151
5.5 Extra territoriality 153
5.6 MEAs and the EC 155
5.7 Conclusion 157

6 Investor protection and environmental regulation (1). Customary international law and the European Convention on Human Rights 161
6.1 Customary international law on expropriation 165
   6.1.1 Defining expropriation 166
   6.1.2 What property can be subject to an expropriation? 172
   6.1.3 Causation 173
   6.1.4 Assessing the quantum of an expropriation claim 174
6.2 The European Convention on Human Rights. Article 1 of the First Protocol 180
   6.2.1 'Deprivation of possessions' claims 182
   6.2.2 'Control of use' claims 185

7 Investor protection and environmental regulation (2). NAFTA, Chapter Eleven 189
7.1 Threshold issues of definition 194
7.2 Articles 1102 and 1103 – National treatment and most-favoured-nation principles 202
7.3 Treatment in accordance with international law – Article 1105 207
   7.3.1 Initial interpretations of Art 1105 208
   7.3.2 The Free Trade Commission's interpretation of Art 1105 211
   7.3.3 Subsequent interpretations of Art 1105 211
7.4 Performance requirements – Article 1106 215
7.5 Article 1110. Expropriation 216
   7.5.1 What constitutes expropriation or a measure 'tantamount to expropriation'? 217
7.6 Exceptions to Chapter Eleven obligations 224
   7.6.1 Article 1114. Environmental measures 224
   7.6.2 Article 1112 226
   7.6.3 Article 103 227
   7.6.4 Article 104 227
7.7 Quantum 227
10 Actions against multinational corporations before English courts 293

10.1 Establishing jurisdiction 293
10.2 Declining jurisdiction 294
  10.2.1 Forum non conveniens 294
  10.2.2 Act of state 296
  10.2.3 Sovereign immunity 296
10.3 Tort liability 298
  10.3.1 Derivative liability. ‘Piercing the veil’ 298
  10.3.2 Derivative liability. Agency 301
  10.3.3 Direct liability 302
  10.3.4 How would the English courts have dealt with the Bhopal disaster? 309
  10.3.5 ‘Soft law’ international instruments and direct liability 310
10.4 Civil liability in respect of violations of customary international law 314
10.5 Applicable law 318
10.6 Conclusion 319

11 Alternative approaches to transnational pollution 323

11.1 International regulation of ship-source pollution 324
  11.1.1 MARPOL 324
  11.1.2 Enforcement jurisdiction under international law 326
11.2 Civil liability conventions on oil pollution 329
  11.2.1 Liability regime 330
  11.2.2 Recoverable damage 334
  11.2.3 Jurisdiction 337
  11.2.4 Compulsory insurance 339
11.3 Other international civil liability conventions 339
11.4 EC Environmental Liability Directive 20004 342
11.5 Conclusion 347

Index 349