Transnational Migration to Israel in Global Comparative Context
Table of Contents

List of Images vii
Acknowledgments ix

1 Introduction 1
Sarah S. Willen

Part I: Transnational Migration and the Israeli State in Flux: National-Level Perspectives

2 Labor Migration, Managing the Ethno-National Conflict, and Client Politics in Israel 31
Rebeca Raijman and Adriana Kemp

3 Litigating Citizenship Beyond the Law of Return 51
Guy Mundlak

Part II: Tel Aviv as Global City: Local and Municipal Perspectives on Transnational Migration

4 Local Migrant Policies in a Guest-worker Regime: The Case of Tel Aviv 73
Michael Alexander

5 Migrant Workers' Segregation and Adaption to the Ethnic City: The Case of Tel Aviv 87
Itzhak Schnell
Table of Contents

Part III: Irregular Migration and Health

6  Rights, Citizenship, and the National State: Health Policies Toward Migrant Workers in Comparative Perspective
Dani Filc and Nadav Davidovitch

7  Undocumented Migrant Workers and Access to Health Services in Germany: Points of Comparison to Israel
Heide Castañeda

8  Asylum Seekers and Trafficked Women—A Comparative Perspective on Health Care Entitlements
Rami Adout

Part IV: Seeking Inhabitable Spaces of Welcome: Ethnographic Perspectives on Undocumented Migrants' Everyday Lives

9  “Flesh of Our Flesh”: Undocumented Migrant Workers' Search for Meaning in the Wake of a Suicide Bombing
Sarah S. Willen

10  The Rise and Fall of African Migrant Churches: Transformations in African Religious Discourse and Practice in Tel Aviv
Galia Sabar

11  Terms of Endearment: Undocumented Domestic Workers and Their Israeli Employers
Anat Rosenthal

Part V: Conclusion

12  Challenging Exclusionary Migration Regimes: Labor Migration in Israel in Comparative Perspective
Zeev Rosenhek

References

Index

Contributor Biographies