

Nils Brunsson

Mechanisms of Hope

Maintaining the Dream of the Rational Organization

Copenhagen Business School Press
Liber
Universitetsforlaget

Table of contents

Preface 5

CHAPTER 1. THE DREAM OF RATIONALITY 11
Rationality as a form of intelligence 13
The rule about rationality 15
Rules for what we want, say, and do 20
A world of failure, reform, and hope 25

CHAPTER 2. ORGANIZATIONS AND RATIONAL REFORMS 29
The rational model and organizational practice 29
The rational model in presentations and intentions 36
Reforms 41
Reform as a threat to hope 49
Design and methods 52

CHAPTER 3. SELLING RATIONAL REFORMS 57
Two rational reforms 58
The rational as self-evident 64
Rationality for others 69
Selling principles 74
The irrelevance of experience 77
Presentation instead of practice 82
Principle and practice 86

CHAPTER 4. BUYING RATIONAL REFORMS 87
An irrational buying process 88
A well known principle 91
Watering down and projection 92
Constructing an organization 94
Distancing from practices 97
Similarities between sellers and buyers 100

CHAPTER 5. THE RECEPTION OF RATIONAL REFORMS 102
The local edition of the rational principle 103
Application – system, meaning, and construction 110

A realistic model 113
 Usefulness 114
 A soft reception 120

CHAPTER 6. LEARNING ABOUT RATIONALITY 123

Continued reforms at NSA 124
 The reformers' experiences 132
 Learning at E-city 135
 Conclusion – continued reform 142
 Learning 144

CHAPTER 7. LEARNING TO HOPE 145

A model of experiential learning 145
 Lack of information 150
 Irrelevance of information 154
 Learning about things other than the principle 158
 Learning about causes: special factors and resistance 163
 Hopeful learning 165
 Learning about the rational principle 166
 Thought or talk 168

CHAPTER 8. A PUBLIC DEBATE 172

There is no alternative! 174
 Watering down 175
 Model characteristics rather than effects 176
 The evasive practice 178
 The principle is right and the practice is wrong 181
 Preserving hope at a distance 182

CHAPTER 9. THE MECHANISMS OF HOPE 185

Avoiding practice 186
 Selection of practice – rationality at a distance in time and space 197
 Interpreting everything for the best 203
 Separating the world of ideas from the practical world 210

The Act of Hope 211
An application 214

CHAPTER 10. THE INTRICACIES OF HOPE 215

Introducing rationality with the help of irrationality 215
Hope as outcome or cause 221
A culture of hope 224
Implications for reforms 229
Hopefulness and hopelessness 232

References 234