

Contents

- List of figures vii
- List of tables ix
- Preface xi
- List of acronyms xiii

1. Introduction: New Technology @ Work 1
2. Organizational change: theories of technological change at work 13
3. Manufacturing management: the integration of technical and organizational systems 43
4. Technological innovation and clerical work: call centres and the reorganization of office and interactive service employment 59
5. New information and communication technologies, and the organization of managerial and professional work 83
6. New forms of work organization and the technological revolution: distributed work arrangements and telework 101
7. New technologies and new patterns of institutional relationships in the global economy 123
8. The evolution and development of national technological systems 149
9. New technology and the future of work: employment restructuring, organizational change and the quality of jobs 176

References 191
Index 220