Population Movements, Conflicts, and Displacements in Nigeria

Edited by
Toyin Falola and Okpeh Ochayi Okpeh, Jr.
Table of Contents

Introduction

Toyin Falola and Okpeh Ochayi Okpeh, Jr.

Part A: Historical Perspectives on Migrations and Conflicts

1. Inter-Group Migrations, Conflicts, and Displacements in Central Nigeria
   - Okpeh Ochayi Okpeh, Jr.

2. Nigerian Migrants in the Cameroons and the Reactions of the Host Communities, 1885-1961
   - Bayo A. Lawal

3. Migration Patterns and Identity Formation among the Igbo
   - Chima J. Korieh

4. Migration and Institution Building in Africa: Lessons from the Lagos Plan of Action
   - Kenneth Kalu

Part B: Population Displacements and National Development

5. Religious Conflicts and Internally Displaced Persons In Nigeria
   - Gwamna Dogara Je'adayibe

6. The Role of Small and Light Arms in Migration and Displacement in Nigeria Since the 1980s
   - Olayemi Akinwumi
   Francis Akumabi Agbali

Part C: The Nigerian State and the Crisis of Managing Internal Displacement

8. The Economic Cost of Government Policy on Internally Displaced People in Central Nigeria
   Ibrahim Umaru

9. Infrastructural Neglect and Economic Imperatives in the Post-War Igbo Migrations to the Northern and Western Parts of Nigeria
   Ihediwa Nkemjika Chimee

10. Defending the Housing Rights of Displaced Persons in Urban Nigeria
    Chris Agoha

11. Reconciling Exiles and Their Tormentors: an Appraisal of Selected Medieval-Contemporary Peace Building Strategies Among the Igbo
    Ayandiji D. Aina

12. Widowhood in Nigeria: Problems and Prospects for Development
    Felicia A. D. Oyekanmi

Contributors

Index