Contents

List of illustrations vii
Acknowledgments ix
Foreword xi
Sharon Zukin

Introduction
Kevin Hetherington and Anne M. Cronin

1. Marketing the City in Crisis: Branding and Restructuring New York City in the 1970s and the Post-9/11 Era
   Miriam Greenberg 19

2. Home Alone: Selling New Domestic Spaces
   Justine Lloyd 45

3. Urban Space and Entrepreneurial Property Relations: Resistance and the Vernacular of Outdoor Advertising and Graffiti
   Anne M. Cronin 65

4. Stars, Meshes, Grids: Urban Network-Images and the Embodiment of Wireless Infrastructures
   Adrian Mackenzie 85
5 Always Turned On: Atlantic City as America's Accursed Share 107
  Mimi Sheller

6 The Ruins of the Future: On Urban Transience and Durability 127
  David B. Clarke

7 Just Another Coffee! Milking the Barcelona Model, Marketing a Global Image, and the Resistance of Local Identities 143
  Antonio Luna-Garcia

8 Broken Links, Changing Speeds, Spatial Multiples: Rewiring Douala 161
  AbdouMaliq Simone

9 Consuming the Night: Space and Subjectivity in Contemporary Youth Culture 181
  Maria Isabel Mendes de Almeida

10 Contesting the Night as a Space for Consumption in Old San Juan, Puerto Rico 201
  Patria Román-Velázquez

11 “The Atmosphere of a Foreign Country”: Harbin's Architectural Inheritance 221
  Yukiko Koga

12 Liverpool’s Rialto: A Ghost in the City of Culture 255
  Glen McIver

13 The Time of the Entrepreneurial City: Museum, Heritage, and Kairos 273
  Kevin Hetherington

Contributors 295
Picture credits 298
Index 299