Dollarization, Euroization and Financial Instability

Central and Eastern European Countries between Stagnation and Financial Crisis?

edited by

Joachim Becker and Rudy Weissenbacher

Metropolis-Verlag
Marburg 2007
Contents

Introduction..................................................................................................................7

1. Uneven Development and Transformations in Europe

Jože Mencinger
From Socialism to EU Membership........................................................................19

Rudy Weissenbacher
Historical Considerations of Uneven Development in East Central Europe ........35

2. Implications of Foreign Direct Investments (FDI) in Central and Eastern Europe

Jan Drahokoupil
From National Capitalisms to Foreign-Led Growth:
The Moment of Convergence in Central and Eastern Europe .........................87

Jože Mencinger
Addiction to FDI and current Account Balance......................................................109

3. Current Account Deficits, Foreign Debt, and Financial Crises

Özlem Onaran
International financial markets and fragility in Eastern Europe:
“Can it happen” here? .............................................................................................129
4. Dilemmas of Euroization

Béla Galgóczi
Potential Impacts of the Adoption of the Euro for the CEE New Member States

Petr Gočev
Debate on the Eurozone Accession in the Czech Republic

László Andor
Three Jumps to Cross the River: An Inquiry into the Hungarian Eurozone Accession Failure

Joachim Becker
Dollarisation in Latin America and Euroisation in Eastern Europe: Parallels and Differences

Authors