Contents

List of figures  xiii
List of tables  xv
List of contributors  xvii
Preface  xix
Foreword  xxiii

RANDALL SCHULER

Part I – The Indian Context

1 Introduction: Human resource management in the Indian context
   PAWAN S. BUDHWAR
   • Introduction  3
   • Indian economic liberalisation and HRM  4
   • The Indian socio-cultural context  7
   • Evolution and developments in Indian HRM  10
   • An overview of the volume  13

Part II – Determinants of Indian HRM

2 Employment relations in India
   C. S. VENKATA RATNAM
   • Introduction  23
   • Employment opportunities and recruitment methods  24
   • Employment relations in India – historical evolution  26
   • Principal actors in the industrial relations system: The weak tripod  30
   • Static laws, shifting dynamic and varied interpretation  33
Contents

- Levels of bargaining
- Communication, consultation and cooperation
- Alternative scenarios

3 Labour law in India: Structure and working
DEBI S. SAINI
- Introduction
- Constitutional framework and labour law
- The law of working conditions
- Industrial relations law
- The law of wages and monetary benefits
- The law of social security
- Concluding remarks

4 Factors influencing Indian HRM policies and practices
PAWAN S. BUDHWAR AND VIRENDER SINGH
- Introduction
- National factors determining HRM
- Contingent variables determining HRM
- Methodology
- Results
- Conclusions and way forward

Part III – Sector-specific HRM

5 Emerging HRM systems of foreign firms operating in India
PAWAN S. BUDHWAR, INGMAR BJÖRKMAN AND VIRENDER SINGH
- Introduction
- Research approach
- Staffing of the HR department
- Services provided by the HR department
- HR policy – parent versus Indian operations
- Globalisation versus localisation
- Learning and sharing of knowledge

6 HRM in business process outsourcing firms operating in India
PAWAN S. BUDHWAR
- Introduction
- Developments in the Indian BPO sector
- Outsourcing, HRM and work systems
• Methodology 143
• Work organisation in Indian BPOs 145
• Recruitment 146
• Remuneration and performance appraisal 147
• Training 148
• Retention and attrition 148
• Conclusions and implications 150

Part IV – Emerging Themes in Indian HRM

7 Exploring the psychological contract and employee engagement in India
JYOTSNA BHATNAGAR
• Introduction 161
• Conceptual framework of the psychological contract 163
• Employee engagement in the Indian context 166
• Methodology 169
• Measures 169
• Results 169
• Conclusions and implications 172

8 Talent management strategies in India
JYOTSNA BHATNAGAR
• Introduction 180
• Literature review: Talent management (TM) strategies 182
• Talent mindset 183
• Talent management as a perspective of high performance work systems (HPWS) 184
• Employer branding as a differentiator for TM: Person–organisation fit 185
• Employee engagement index: Reflection of employer branding 187
• The multiplier effect of talent management and leadership development 189
• Talent segmentation and competency profiling: Talent identification strategy 190
• Competency profiling as a base for talent identification 190
• Implementing talent management through HRIS 192
• Protecting talent through innovative remuneration and development strategies 192
9 Human resource information systems (HRIS) and HR outsourcing in India
JYOTSNA BHATNAGAR

• Introduction 207
• Evolution of IT-enabled HR to service-oriented HRIS: HR architecture 209
• Service-oriented architecture: The new development 211
• HR outsourcing 211
• HRIS and HRO in the Indian context 213
• Methodology 215
• Research site: Organisation Z 217
• Need assessment at Organisation Z 218
• Key challenges in the implementation of HRIS in India 220
• Outsourced non-core HR activities at Organisation Z (not under HRIS) 225
• Reasons for HR outsourcing 225
• Obstacles to HR outsourcing 225
• What other HR are being outsourced, not currently under HRIS? 227
• Conclusion and implications 227

10 HR metrics: HR and Six Sigma in an India-based MNC
JYOTSNA BHATNAGAR AND ASHISH PANDEY

• Introduction: Need for HR metrics 234
• Current micro-HR metrics in the Indian HRM function 236
• Current macro-approaches to HR metrics 237
• Six Sigma and HR function 240
• Design and methodology of the study 242
• Research site – Globcorp 243
• HR Six Sigma intervention 243
• Implementation of Six Sigma project 244
• Discussion and implications 253
11 Organisational commitment and firm's performance in the Indian context

Jyotsna Bhatnagar and Anuradha Sharma

- Introduction: 260
- Key developments in the area of organisational commitment (OC): 261
- Research on organisational commitment in India: 264
- Individual-level contingency variables and OC: 266
- Organisational-level contingency variables and OC: 267
- Organisational commitment and a firm's performance: 268
- Methodology: 269
- Measures: 270
- Results and discussion: 270
- Conclusion and implications: 275

Part V – The Future Landscape

12 Challenges facing Indian HRM and the way forward

Pawan S. Budhwar

- Concluding remarks: 287
- Challenges for Indian HRM and possible directions: 293

Index: 303