Tensions between Local Governance and Local Democracy

Book series ‘Local Governance and Democracy’
Volume i

Editors:
Jochen Franzke, Marcel Boogers, José M. Ruano and Linze Schaap

EGPA Study Group on Local Governance and Democracy
Overheidsmanagement, Reed Business
2007
Table of Contents

1 Introduction (Jochen Franzke, Marcel Boogers, José Ruano, Linze Schaap) 7

Part I: Local Governance and Democracy

2 Tensions between Governance and the Prerequisites of Democracy (Bríd Quinn) 15

3 How Democratic are Networks Based on Citizen Involvement? (Karl Löfgren, Annika Agger) 29

Part II: Reforms of Representative Local Democracy

4 Re-intermediating the Councillors? New Connections between Citizens and Local Political Decision-making in The Netherlands and the UK (Arthur Edwards) 53

5 Effects of Institutionalization of Politics on Local Policy-making. A Comparison of Latvia, Hungary, Estonia and Slovakia (Georg Sootla, Kaie Küngas) 67

Part III: Local Governance and New Forms of Participation

6 Participation: the Necessary Condition for the Administration and the Democracy Reform in the Local Political Sphere (Moneyba González Medina) 93

7 From Porto Alegre to Europe: Potentials and Limitations of Participatory Budgeting (Yves Sintomer, Carsten Herzberg, Anja Röcke) 113
Public-Private Partnerships: Opportunity or Menace for Democratic Policy Making in Urban Agglomerations? (Brigitte Schwab)

Part IV: Stakeholder Participation

Dutch Everyday Makers in Vital Coalitions – ‘Getting Things Done’ in City Neighbourhoods (Ted van de Wijdeven, Eefke Cornelissen)

Stakeholders Support in Urban Governance (Laurens de Graaf)

Attitudes towards Citizen Involvement. Looking from Both Sides of the ‘Gap’ (Dries Verlet, Kristof Steyvers, Herwig Reynaert, Carl Devos)

Part V: Regional Governance, Municipal Cooperation and Local-Central Relations

Equal Leadership in Municipal Reforms – Towards Individual Change Management (Hanna Vakkala)

Governance and Democracy in a Transitional Economy: the Case of Estonian Local Government (Kristiina Tonnisson, John Wilson)

Centralization is Dead! Long Live Centralization! The Cases of Intra-Municipal Decentralisation in Bucharest (Romania) and Rotterdam (The Netherlands) (Diana-Camelia Iancu, Julien van Ostaaijen)

Part VI: Conclusions

Conclusions: Governance and Democracy at the Local Level – Structures, Processes and Tensions (Jochen Franzke, Marcel Boogers, José Ruano, Linze Schaap)

About the Authors