Taxation of Artistes and Sportsmen in International Tax Law

edited by

Walter Loukota
Markus Stefaner
Contents

Series Editor’s Preface ................................................................. 5
Preface ....................................................................................... 7
List of Abbreviations ............................................................... 13

I. Taxation of Artistes and Sportsmen

Milan Matijevic
The Notion of Artistes in Article 17 of the OECD Model Tax Convention ... 21

Jiří Zoubek
Notion of Sportsmen in Art. 17 OECD Model ........................................ 35

Yasmin Wagner
The Historical Background of Art. 17 OECD Model ................................ 55

Thomas Bramo
The Notion of “Income” in the Sense of Art. 17 OECD Model .................... 71

Jozef Danis
Treatment of Income from Inaction of Artistes and Sportsmen
according to the OECD Model .......................................................... 91

Jaromír Bláha
Treatment of “Training Activities” for Artistes and Sportsmen
according to the OECD Model .......................................................... 115

Rene Kreisl
Treatment of Artistic Income where there is no Public Performance
according to the OECD Model .......................................................... 137

Günther Zadek
Treatment of Advertising Income of Artistes and Sportsmen
according to the OECD Model .......................................................... 159

Diana Swanney
Taxation of Pensions and Golden Handshakes of Artistes and Sportsmen
according to the OECD Model .......................................................... 181

Tobias Wehrli
Taxation of Contract Splitting with Artistes and Sportsmen
according to the OECD Model .......................................................... 207
Contents

Alexander Malin
Employed Artistes and Sportsmen according to the OECD Model .................. 227

II. Interposition of Companies

Martin Jau
“Star Companies” in International Tax Law .......................................................... 247

Daniel Felderer
Taxation of Artistic and Athletic Performance
under Art. 17 (2) OECD Model .............................................................................. 269

Boris Gnoth
Taxation of Other Income of Artistes and Sportsmen at Interposition of a Company according to the OECD Model ...................................................... 301

III. NPOs’ and Governmental Organisations’ Relation to Artistes and Sportsmen; De minimis Clause

Lorenz Pracht
Special Issues Due to the Way of Financing
Artistes and Sportsmen ...................................................................................... 327

Jürg P. Brinkmann
De minimis Clause According to the US Model .................................................. 349

IV. Non-discrimination Issues and Community Law Perspective

Ove Jenssen
Non-discrimination Issues of Artistes and Sportsmen in the light of Article 24 OECD Model ................................................................. 371

Petr Neskrabal
Personal Taxation of Non-resident Artistes and Sportsmen
in the light of Non-discrimination Clauses ......................................................... 389

Martina Aigner
Administrative Burdens for Non-resident Artistes and Sportsmen
in the light of Non-discrimination Clauses ......................................................... 405

Juraj Valis
Withholding Taxes for Non-resident Artistes and Sportsmen
in the light of Non-discrimination Clauses ......................................................... 421
V. Value Added Tax under the EU Directives

Ulrich Kraßnig
Taxable Event and Taxable Base for VAT of Artistes and Sportsmen under the Sixth Directive ................................................................. 441

Claudia Lantos
Place of “Supply” for Activities of Artistes and Sportsmen under the Sixth Directive ................................................................. 463

Kooiyang Cheah
Value Added Taxation and Contract-Splitting in relation to International Artistes and Sportsmen ............................................. 483

List of Authors ........................................................................... 495