Producer organisations and market chains

Facilitating trajectories of change in developing countries

edited by:
Giel Ton
Jos Bijman
Joost Oorthuizen

B 367214

Wageningen Academic Publishers
Table of contents

Introduction 11
Giel Ton, Jos Bijman and Joost Oorthuizen

Section A. Organisational support for producer organisations

The balancing act of creating a cooperative: the role of outsiders in a Kyrgyz Republic case 23
Gerrit Holtland

Coaching organisational transitions towards an increased market orientation: SNV’s experience with producer organisation support in the Bolivian Valleys 37
Lithzy Flores, Dick Commandeur, Giel Ton and Gerda Zijm

Creating a balance between loyalty and efficiency: the importance of organisational culture for the market integration of coffee producer organisations in Chiapas, Mexico 53
Olga van der Valk

Peer-to-peer farmer support for economic development 71
Kees Blokland and Christian Gouët

Section B. Value chain development with producer organisations

How can cooperatives meet the challenges of agrifood supply chains? 91
Jos Bijman

Chain empowerment: supporting African smallholders to develop markets 117
Lucian Peppelenbos and Hugo Verkuijl
Table of contents

Fostering co-ownership with producer organisations in international value chains: a strategic answer to the mainstreaming of fair trade fruits?
Dave Boselie

African smallholders in organic export projects
Bo van Elzakker

Small farmer group certification to access socially and environmentally ‘just’ markets
Rhiannon Pyburn

Connecting Costa Rican small scale coffee farmers to the mainstream European market: an integral chain strategy for sustainable development and improved competitiveness
Myrtille Danse

Building social capital for potato production and marketing: producer organisations’ initiatives in north-western Rwanda
Bertus Wennink and Ted Schrader

Farmers’ organisations in West Africa: emerging stakeholders in cotton sector reforms
Joost Nelen

Section C. Changes in the institutional environment for producer organisations

The farmers’ organisation route to economic development
Kees Blokland and Christian Gouët

The rise of new rural producer organisations in China
Jos Bijman, Rik Deineoye and Giel Ton

Farmers’ organisations in agricultural research and development: governance issues in two competitive funding programs in Bolivia
Giel Ton
Contract farming and social action by producers: the politics and practice of agrarian modernisation in the Philippines
Sietze Vellema

Conclusions
Jos Bijman, Giel Tbn and Joost Oorthuizen

About the authors