Technological Change and Mature Industrial Regions
Contents

List of Contributors viii

PART I MATURE REGIONS: TECHNOLOGY, SOCIETY AND INDUSTRIAL STRUCTURE

1. The Problems of Mature Regions: An Introduction and Overview
   Mahtab Akhavan Farshchi, Odile E. M. Janne and Philip McCann
   3

2. Regional Capabilities and Industrial Regeneration
   Nick von Tunzelmann
   11

3. Multinational Firms and Technological Innovation: The 'Global Versus Local' Challenge
   Simona Iammarino, Odile E. M. Janne and Philip McCann
   29

4. Interdependence among the Brazilian States: An Input-Output Approach
   Fernando Salgueiro Perobelli, Eduardo Amaral Haddad and Edson Paulo Domingues
   44

5. The Changing Structure of Trade and Interdependence in a Mature Economy: The US Midwest
   Geoffrey J. D. Hewings and John B. Parr
   64

6. Mature Industries and Declining Regions: An Analysis of the Spanish Case
   Josep-Maria Arauzo-Carod and Elisabet Viladecans-Marsal
   85
Contents

PART II MATURE REGION–INDUSTRY CASE STUDIES

   Peter Clark 111

8. Life After Longbridge? Crisis and Restructuring in the West Midlands Auto Cluster
   David Bailey and Seiji Kobayashi 129

9. Massachusetts Medical Devices: Leveraging the Region's Capabilities
   Michael H. Best 155

10. Economic Restructuring, Regional 'Visioning' and the Role of Universities: The Outcomes of an Automobile Plant Closure in Southern Adelaide, Australia
    Andrew Beer and Holli Thomas 173

11. Maturity or Decline of Italian Industrial Districts
    Ivana Paniccia 195

12. Knowledge Spillovers and Industrial Transformation: The West Midlands and Saxony Automotive Clusters
    Odile E. M. Janne and Mahtab Akhavan Farshchi 211

PART III REGIONAL POLICY AND MATURE INDUSTRIAL REGIONS

13. A Cost-Benefit Approach to the Assessment of Regional Policy
    J. Kim Swales 237

14. Regional Policies in Italy, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom: A Shift in Paradigm?
    Ilaria Mariotti 259

15. Innovation Policy After the 'Celtic Tiger'
    Declan Jordan and Eoin O'Leary 277