Flexicurity and Beyond

Finding a new agenda
for the European Social Model

DJØF Publishing
2007
Table of contents

CHAPTER 1. Flexicurity and Beyond — Reflections on the Nature and Future of a Political Celebrity .......................................................... 7
Henning Jørgensen and Per Kongshøj Madsen

PART I: Flexicurity — The European perspective

CHAPTER 2. Comparing the performance of employment systems: Is the Lisbon Strategy in the right track? .................................................. 39
Gunther Schmid

CHAPTER 3. In Search of Optimal Labour Market Institutions ............................. 67
Peter Auer

CHAPTER 4. ‘Making transitions pay’: the ‘transitional labour markets’ approach to ‘flexicurity’ .......................................................... 99
Bernard Gazier

CHAPTER 5. Flexicurity and Reflexive Coordination of European Social and Employment Policies ......................................................... 131
Ralf Rogowski

CHAPTER 6. From political strategy to analytical research and back to politics, a sociological approach of ‘flexicurity’ ............................................ 155
Jean-Claude Barbier

CHAPTER 7. Not balanced and hardly new: the European Commission’s quest for flexicurity ............................................................. 189
Maarten Keune and Maria Jepsen

PART II: Towards more protected mobility?

CHAPTER 8. Roads of ‘Flexicurity’ in Europe: How (un)equal are they? ............ 215
Ruud Muffels

CHAPTER 9. ‘Flexibility for employers or for employees? A new approach to examining labour market flexibility across Europe using company level data’ .... 243
Heejung Chung

Guillaume Blache
CHAPTER 11. Flexicurity and the life-course: Labour market integration over the life-course in different European welfare state regimes ......................................................... 307
Ute Klammer

CHAPTER 12. On the Marriage of Flexibility and Security: Lessons from the Hartz reforms in Germany .................................................................................. 335
Janine Leschke, Günther Schmid, Dorit Griga

CHAPTER 13. The challenges of identifying flexicurity in action – A case study on Denmark .................................................................................. 365
Thomas Bredgaard, Flemming Larsen & Per Kongsbrød Madsen

CHAPTER 14. Flexicurity: combining labour market flexibility and security in the Baltic States .................................................................................. 391
Raul Eamets and Tiitu Paas

PART III: Neglected aspects of flexicurity

CHAPTER 15. Institutional arrangements in support of adult competences and its nexus to flexicurity .................................................................................. 421
Klaus Schömann, Sara Geerdes, Liuben Siarov

CHAPTER 16. Social partnership as a frame for policy learning? The case of Austria .................................................................................. 451
Lorenz Lassnigg

CHAPTER 17. Rethinking flexicurity at the level of work situations .................................................................................. 481
François Pichault, Virginie Xhauflair

CHAPTER 18. The Flexicurity of Mutual Responsiveness in Labour-Management Relations .................................................................................. 503
Mads Peter Klindt and Rasmus Juul Møberg

CHAPTER 19. Does it pay? Flexibility and pay in the Danish flexicurity-model .................................................................................. 531
Flemming Ibsen

CHAPTER 20. To what extent are temporary work and part-time employment cushioned by different forms of security? .................................................................................. 561
Janine Leschke

List of contributors .................................................................................. 603