Canada's Resource Economy in Transition:
THE PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE OF CANADIAN STAPLES INDUSTRIES

EDITED BY

Michael Howlett
Department of Political Science
Simon Fraser University
Burnaby, British Columbia
Canada

Keith Brownsey
Department of Policy Studies
Mount Royal College
Calgary, Alberta
Canada

2008
Emond Montgomery Publications Limited
Toronto, Canada
Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Figures</th>
<th>ix</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>xi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgements</td>
<td>xiii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>About the Authors</td>
<td>xv</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PART I  Introduction

Chapter 1  Introduction: Toward a Post-Staples State?
Michael Howlett and Keith Brownsey

- Overview: The Evolution of a Staples Political Economy
  - 4
- The Significance of a Transition to a New or Post-Staples Political Economy
  - 7
- Organization of the Book
  - 9
- Notes
  - 13
- References
  - 13

PART II  The Post-Staples State in Theory and Practice

Chapter 2  The (Post) Staples Economy and the (Post) Staples State in Historical Perspective
Adam Wellstead

- Introduction
  - 19
- The Origins of Staples Political Economy: Harold Innis and the Toronto School
  - 20
- The Post-Staples Thesis
  - 25
  - The Empirical Situation
    - 25
- Defining the Staples State
  - 27
  - The Minimalist State
    - 27
  - The Emergent State and New Industrialism: The Staples State’s Golden Era
    - 30
  - The Keynesian Welfare State
    - 31
  - The Competitive State: A Reconsideration of the Staples State in the Contemporary Era
    - 32
- Conclusion
  - 33
- Notes
  - 34
- References
  - 34
Chapter 3 The Reconstruction of Political Economy and Social Identity in 21st-Century Canada

Thomas A. Hutton

- Introduction: The Post-Staples Hypothesis in Context ........................................ 39
- The "State" of the "Advanced Staples State": Defining Conditions .......................... 42
- New Dynamics of Regional Divergence in the Post-Staples State .......................... 47
- Conclusion: Normative Dimensions of the Post-Staples State ............................. 54
- Notes .................................................................................................................. 56
- References .......................................................................................................... 58

PART III Consumption Industries: Agriculture and the Fisheries

Chapter 4 The Two Faces of Canadian Agriculture in a Post-Staples Economy

Grace Skogstad

- Introduction ........................................................................................................... 63
- Agriculture as a Dominant Staple: Late 19th Century to 1930 ............................... 65
- Depression and War and the National Interest: 1930–1945 ................................ 66
- State Intervention and Restructuring in the Postwar Period ............................... 67
- State Retrenchment, Regionalization, and Globalization in the 1980s and 1990s ........ 69
  - Regional Market Integration and Dependence .................................................. 70
  - Integration into the Multilateral Trading Regime .............................................. 72
  - Redefining State Fiscal Obligations ................................................................ 73
- The Political Organization of the Agri-Food Sector and State–Sector Relations ...... 73
- The Structural Inferiority of Staples Producers in a Mature Staples Sector .......... 75
- Conclusion ............................................................................................................ 77
- Notes .................................................................................................................... 78
- References ............................................................................................................ 79

Chapter 5 The New Agriculture: Genetically Engineered Food in Canada

Elizabeth Moore

- Introduction ........................................................................................................... 83
- The First Wave of Genetically Engineered Food Policy ........................................ 83
- Genetically Engineered Food Policy in Canada: A Mature Staples Context .......... 84
- Jumping on the Bandwagon: Investment in Genetically Engineered Food Technology .................................................................................................................. 86
- The Dual Goals of Regulating Genetically Engineered Food ................................. 88
- The Second Wave of Genetically Engineered Food Policy: Post-Staples Pressures and Responses ........................................................................................................ 90
- Conclusion: The Road Ahead for Genetically Engineered Food Policy in Canada ... 96
- Note ...................................................................................................................... 99
- References ............................................................................................................ 99
Chapter 9  A New Staples Industry? Complexity, Governance, and Canada's Diamond Mines

Patricia J. Fitzpatrick

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Northwest Territories Policy Community</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aboriginal Organizations</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Territorial Government</td>
<td>170</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-Governmental Organizations</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proponents</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The First Diamond Development in the North: The BHP Process</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The West Kitikmeot/Slave Study Society</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Community Capacity and Public Participation in the BHP Review Process</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Implications of the Superadded Agreements</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The BHP Diamonds Inc. Independent Environmental Monitoring Agency</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Diavik Diamond Mines Inc. (DDMI) Project: A Comprehensive Study</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Community Capacity and Public Participation in the Diavik Diamond Mines Inc. (DDMI) Environmental Assessment</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Superadded Agreements: New Players</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Advisory Board</td>
<td>180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Cumulative Effects Assessment and Management Strategy</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other Diamond Developments in the North: The DeBeers Project</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>183</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter 10  Knotty Tales: Forest Policy Narratives in an Era of Transition

Jocelyn Thorpe and L. Anders Sandberg

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Staples-to-Post-Staples Narrative in the Canadian Forest Sector</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Questioning the Staples-to-Post-Staples Transition</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Softwood Lumber Dispute</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chapter 13  Offshore Petroleum Politics: A Changing Frontier in a Global System
Peter Clancy

Offshore Petroleum as a Distinct Political Economy ........................................... 256
The Historical Evolution of the Canadian Offshore Industry ................................. 257
Offshore Petro-Capital as a Political Factor: The Organization of Offshore
Interests .................................................................................................................. 258
Technology as a Political Variable .......................................................................... 263
The Politics of Offshore Oil and Gas Production in Canada ................................... 264
State Strength and Capacities .................................................................................... 266
Offshore Petroleum Regulation in the New Millennium ......................................... 268
Conclusions ................................................................................................................ 271
Notes ......................................................................................................................... 273
References .................................................................................................................. 273

Chapter 14  From Black Gold to Blue Gold: The Emerging Water Trade
John N. McDougall

Introduction .................................................................................................................. 279
The Economics of Bulk-Water Transmission .............................................................. 281
The Politics of Bulk-Water Exports: Lessons from the Oil and Gas Experience ........ 283
The Trade Regime Affecting Oil and Gas: Lessons for Water Exports ....................... 284
Free Trade Agreements and Water Exports and Investments .................................. 287
Water Service Investments .......................................................................................... 290
Evaluating the Potential for Water Service Development ......................................... 291
Conclusion: The Effects of Free Trade Agreements on National Resource Policies ... 294
Notes ........................................................................................................................... 295
References .................................................................................................................... 296

Chapter 15  The Political Economy of Canadian Hydroelectricity
Alexander Netherton

Introduction: Hydro as a Staple—System and Regime .............................................. 299
The Mixed Regime: Electrification and Industrialization to 1945 ............................... 301
The Keynesian Regime: Provincial Hydros and Megaprojects, 1946–1992 ................ 304
Hydro and Postwar Continental Integration ................................................................. 308
The Sustainability/Regionalization Regime, Post-1992 ............................................. 312
Conclusions ............................................................................................................... 320
Notes ......................................................................................................................... 322
References .................................................................................................................. 324

Index ........................................................................................................................... 331