Citizenship and Consumption

Edited by

Kate Soper
London Metropolitan University

Frank Trentmann
Birkbeck College, University of London

palgrave macmillan
Contents

List of Plates
  vii

List of Figure and Table
  viii

Acknowledgements
  ix

Notes on Contributors
  x

1 Introduction
   Kate Soper and Frank Trentmann
   1

Part 1  Retrieval

2 Civic Choices: Retrieving Perspectives on Rationality, Consumption, and Citizenship
   Mark Bevir and Frank Trentmann
   19

3 Consumption and Politics in Twentieth-Century China
   Karl Gerth
   34

4 Sartorial Manoeuvres in the Dusk: Blue Jeans in Socialist Hungary
   Ferenc Hammer
   51

Part 2  Talk and Action

5 Consuming Without Paying: Stealing or Campaigning? The Civic Implications of Civil Disobedience Around Access to Water
   Bronwen Morgan
   71

6 The Banality of Consumption
   Matthew Hilton
   87

7 'Public Connection' and the Uncertain Norms of Media Consumption
   Nick Couldry, Sonia Livingstone and Tim Markham
   104

8 The Moral Force of Consumption and Capitalism: Anti-slavery and Anti-sweatshop
   Michele Micheletti
   121
Contents

Part 3 Prospects

9 Exit Homo Politicus, Enter Homo Consumens
   Zygmunt Bauman

10 Consumer Citizenship in Post-national Constellations?
   Michelle Everson and Christian Joerges

11 Sustainability, Well-Being and Consumption:
   The Limits of Hedonic Approaches
   John O'Neill

12 'Alternative Hedonism' and the Citizen-Consumer
   Kate Soper

Notes

Index