

Proceedings of a Conference held at the H.C. Coombs Centre for Financial Studies, Kirribilli

on 20–21 August 2007

THE STRUCTURE AND RESILIENCE OF THE FINANCIAL SYSTEM

Editors:

Christopher Kent
Jeremy Lawson

Reserve Bank of Australia

Table of Contents

Introduction

Christopher Kent and Jeremy Lawson 1

Change and Constancy in the Financial System: Implications for Financial Distress and Policy

Claudio Borio 8

Discussant: Jan Brockmeijer 36

Risk and the Transformation of the Australian Financial System

Chris Ryan and Chris Thompson 38

Discussant: Saul Eslake 76

The Rise in US Household Indebtedness: Causes and Consequences

Karen E Dynan and Donald L Kohn 84

Discussant: Chris Carroll 114

The Rise of Household Indebtedness

Christopher Kent, Crystal Ossolinski and Luke Willard 123

Discussant: Jack Selody 164

Finance and Welfare States in Globalising Markets

Giuseppe Bertola 167

Discussant: Guy Debelle 196

Banks, Markets and Liquidity

Franklin Allen and Elena Carletti 201

Discussant: Mathias Drehmann 219

Innovation and Integration in Financial Markets and the Implications for Financial Stability

Rob Hamilton, Nigel Jenkinson and Adrian Penalver 226

Discussant: Jonathan Fiechter 251

Banking Concentration, Financial Stability and Public Policy

Kevin Davis 255

Discussant: Ian Harper 285

Regulatory Challenges of Cross-border Banking: Possible Ways Forward

Stefan Ingves 290

Discussant: Grant Spencer 297

The Evolution of Risk and Risk Management – A Prudential Regulator’s Perspective

John Laker 300

Discussant: Jenny Corbett 318

Wrap-up Discussion

Avinash D Persaud 324

Philip Lowe 332

Biographies of Contributors 340

Glossary: Alphabetical List of Selected ISO Country Codes 348

List of Conference Participants 349

Other Volumes in this Series 351

Copyright and Disclaimer Notices 352