Contents

List of illustrations vii

List of case studies xi

Acknowledgements xiii

1 Cities and economies 1
   - Urban growth and decline 2
   - Large cities in the national and global economies 4
   - Urban economic changes in the era of globalization 7

Part One: Urban growth and decline in economic shifts 11

2 Mercantile cities and European colonialism 13
   - Merchant capitalism and the growth of towns 14
   - Merchant capitalism, colonialism and global urban networks 20
   - Cartographic representations of the merchant city 25

3 The rise and fall of industrial cities 28
   - The industrial city and social conflict 32
   - The planned city 34
   - The Fordist city 37

4 Service industries and metropolitan economies 48
   - The growth of the service sector 50
   - The role of the public sector 56
   - Global shift of services 57
Part Two: The global economy and world cities in developed countries

5 Globalization and world cities
   World cities in urban studies
   Command and control centers of the global economy
   The global urban hierarchy

6 Globalization and globalizing cities
   Urban competitiveness
   Politics of world-city status
   Globalizing cities and globalized urbanism

7 New solutions for old economies
   The cultural economy
   The creative economy

Part Three: The national economy and capital cities in developing countries

8 Third world cities
   Third world cities in urban studies
   Mega cities of the developing world
   Primate cities

9 World city projects for national capitals
   National economic development and capital cities
   Graduating from third world city status

10 Globalizing islands in developing countries
    Inequality in globalizing third world cities
    High-tech enclaves in Bangalore
    Ethnic enclaves in Seoul

References

Index