Technology strategy and strategic alliances
Selected papers from the 1998 R&D Management Conference
Contents

Keynote papers • 11
A. Using strategic partnerships to create a sustainable competitive position for hitech start-up firms (Arnoud De Meyer) • 13
B. Alliances and other things (Pedro Nueno) • 21

Papers • 25
1. Performance of alliances. Formative stages and changing organizational and environmental influences (Varghese P. George, George Farris) • 27
2. Crafting successful strategic technology partnerships. (Geer Duysters, Gerard Kok, Maaike Vaandrager) • 41
3. Comparing technology management issues in technology - orientated mergers and acquisitions and joint ventures (Andrew D. James, Katharine Barker) • 67
4. Organisational forms for accessing external sources of technology (Vittorio Chiesa, Raffaella Manzini, Giovanni Toletti) • 67
5. Alliances as a strategic alternative for developing innovation towards embryonic demands (Inmaculada Freije Obregón, María Angeles Aláez Martín) • 85
6. An empirical analysis of R&D strategic alliances for small and medium firms: effects upon technology and innovation management (Enrique Claver, Juan Llopis, Hipólito Molina, Francisco José Conca, Bartolomé Marco) • 97
7. Technology alliances constraints. (Zandra Balbinot, Rosane Argou Marques) • 113
8. Metrics for strategic alliance control (John Callahan, Scott MacKenzie) • 129
9. Mid- entry technology strategy – The Korean experience with CDMA (KunMop Chung and KongRae Lee) • 145
10. Framing of international research alliances: influence on strategy (Sally Davenport, John Davies, Aaron Miller) • 159
11. Intellectual capital in university-industry high tech strategic alliances (Esteban Fernández, Guillermo Pérez-Bustamante, Camilo J. Vázquez) • 177
12. Strategic contexts of partnerships between firms and public research laboratories: an empirical study in France (Thierry Gonard) • 189
13. R&D alliances between firm and public research centers to enhance competitiveness. A Spanish empirical evidency (Elena Revilla, Rafael Domenech, Aurelia Modrego, Juan Acosta, Josep Riverola) • 199
14. The strategic context in the transfer of university technology to industry: the case of European Union. (Julían Pavón, Antonio Hidalgo) • 213
15. Modularization and its impact on partnerships with suppliers and customers (Juliana Hsuan) • 223
16. Managing technology partnerships with suppliers (Roman Boutellier, Martin Bratzler, Maximilian von Zedtwitz) • 239
17. New technology alliances in Telecomms markets. Are technology alliances driven by strategy or is responsiveness the key? (José Jiménez Delgado) • 251
18. Strategic alliances, organisational learning and new product development: the cases of Rover and Seat. (María J. Álvarez Gil, Pedro González de la Fé) • 257
19. Globalisation, strategic alliances and technology transfer: Lessons from ICL / Fujitsu and Rover / Honda and BMW (Chris Carr) • 273
20. R&D Alliances and networking in the Spanish ceramic tiles cluster and its role in the sector competitiveness. (J. Albors) • 293
21. Valuing investments in pharmaceutical start-up companies (Thorsten Peske, Randolf Schrank) • 303
22. Managing technology as a virtual «enterprise» (Ursula Weissenfeld-Schenk, Olaf Fisscher, Alan Pearson, Klaus Brockhoff) • 315
23. Empowering innovation process: from strategic plan to the product (Baldomero Fernández-Ron) • 327