

THE SMITH INSTITUTE

BS 78: 387

economic nationalism

Edited by Zaki Cooper

Published by the Smith Institute

ISBN 1 905370 25 3

This report, like all Smith Institute monographs, represents the views of the authors and not those of the Smith Institute.

© The Smith Institute 2007

Contents

Preface

By Wilf Stevenson, Director, Smith Institute 3

Introduction

Zaki Cooper, Director of Business for New Europe 4

Chapter 1: Britain and globalisation – past, present and future

Roland Rudd, Chairman of Business for New Europe 10

Chapter 2: Protectionism in Europe – an overview

David Gow, European Business Editor of The Guardian 16

Chapter 3: Corporate protectionism – a view from the City

Michael Snyder, Chairman of the Policy and Resources Committee at the City of London Corporation 22

Chapter 4: Global trade and the European single market

Malcolm Harbour MEP, Conservative Spokesman on the Internal Market 28

Chapter 5: Views from business

Roger Carr, Chairman of Centrica 34

Peter Erskine, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Telefónica O2 Europe 38

Stuart Popham, Senior Partner of Clifford Chance 41

Sir John Sunderland, Chairman of Cadbury Schweppes Group 46

Bill Thomas, Executive Vice-president of EDS for Europe, the Middle East and Africa 49

Chapter 6: The costs of protectionism – globalisation and development

Professor Anthony Venables, Chief Economist in the UK Department for International Development and BP Professor of Economics at the University of Oxford 54

Chapter 7: The EU's approach to combating protectionism

Charlie McCreevy, European Commissioner for Internal Market and Services 62