Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xiii
Author xv

Chapter 1
Setting the Stage 1
1.1 Possible Barriers to Knowledge Retention 4
1.2 Building the Corporate Memory of the Firm 6
1.3 Summary 6

Chapter 2
Determining Critical “At-Risk” Knowledge 7

Chapter 3
Easy-to-Accomplish Knowledge Retention Techniques 15
3.1 Interviews 15
3.2 Mentoring 17
3.2.1 The Mentoring Program at Johns Hopkins University (JHU) 19
3.3 Oral Histories, Storytelling 19
3.4 Cheat Sheets 21
3.5 Exit Interviews 21
3.6 The Bible 22
3.7 After-Action Reviews 23
3.8 Online Communities, Wikis, Blogs, Social Networking Sites 24
Reference 24

Chapter 4
Developing a Knowledge Retention Framework 25
4.1 The Pillars of Knowledge Retention 26
Chapter 5

Knowledge Retention: Learning from Others

5.1 A Short Case Study: The Knowledge Retention Program for the Office of the Deputy Inspector General for Auditing (ODIG-AUD)

5.1.1 People

5.1.2 Process

5.1.3 Technology

5.1.4 Summary

5.2 Best Practices of the Private Sector and Universities for Using Retirees as a Form of Knowledge Retention and Transfer

5.3 Other Lessons Learned in Knowledge Retention

5.4 Learning from Others about Lessons Learned Systems and Processes

5.4.1 What Works and What Does Not

5.4.2 Possible Lessons Learned: Proof of Concept Criteria

References

Chapter 6

Calculating the Loss of Knowledge

6.1 The "Grayout" Factor

6.2 Turning Knowledge Loss into a Positive Gain

6.3 Knowledge Retention at Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA): Assessing Knowledge Loss

6.4 Summary

References

Chapter 7

Using Organizational Network Analysis to Inform Knowledge Retention Efforts

7.1 Case Example: The Department Organizational Network Analysis

7.1.1 Respondent Demographics

7.1.2 Insights Gained from the Department Organizational Network Analysis (ONA)
7.1.3 Knowledge Retention Recommendations Based on the Department ONA ................................................. 66
7.2 An Example of an ONA Survey Instrument ............................................................... 67
7.3 Knowledge Retention through the ONA Lens ............................................................ 72
References ....................................................................................................................... 72

Chapter 8

Case Study: Knowledge Harvesting during the Big Crew Change

Jeffrey E. Stemke, Knowledge Strategist, Chevron Corporation and Larry Todd Wilson, Founder and President, Knowledge Harvesting Inc.

8.1 Business Case ........................................................................................................... 74
8.2 The Learning Life Cycle ......................................................................................... 75
8.3 Knowledge Retention and Transfer Processes ..................................................... 75
8.4 The Role of Knowledge Harvesting ...................................................................... 76
8.5 Case Study: Capturing and Transferring a Complex Technical Process ............... 78
  8.5.1 Focus .................................................................................................................... 79
  8.5.2 Find ...................................................................................................................... 80
  8.5.3 Elicit .................................................................................................................... 81
  8.5.4 Organize, Package ........................................................................................... 82
  8.5.5 Expert's Review and Comments ....................................................................... 83
  8.5.6 Peers' and Stakeholders' Evaluation and Comments ........................................ 83
8.6 Chevron's Experience with Knowledge Harvesting ............................................. 84
  8.6.1 Lessons Learned .............................................................................................. 84
  8.6.2 Knowledge Harvesting—A Useful Addition to Chevron's Knowledge Retention Toolkit ............... 84

Chapter 9

The Aerospace Corporation Case Study .................................................................... 87

Stewart Sutton, Joseph Betser, Mary Hornickel, Michelle Gregorio,
Jeffery Kern, Christine Lincoln, and Jovel Crisostomo, The Aerospace Corporation Knowledge Management Office

9.1 Introduction ............................................................................................................ 87
9.2 Company Background ........................................................................................... 87
  9.2.1 A History of Knowledge Retention (1960 to Present) ..................................... 88
  9.2.2 The Knowledge Management Role of the Aerospace Library and Information Resources Center ................................................................. 89
  9.2.3 Knowledge Management within Aerospace-at-Large .................................. 90
    9.2.3.1 1960s and 1970s ......................................................................................... 90
    9.2.3.2 1980s ........................................................................................................ 90
    9.2.3.3 1990s to 2007 ......................................................................................... 91