

ILLEGAL PEOPLE

How Globalization Creates Migration and Criminalizes Immigrants

David Bacon

BEACON PRESS, BOSTON

Contents

Preface v

ONE Making Work a Crime 1

Merry Christmas. You're fired. 1

How the Housekeepers Saw It 8

The Smithfield Raids: Overt Union-Busting 12

TWO Why Did We Come? 23

Flight from Oaxaca 23

Battles in the Mines 33

THREE Displacement and Migration 51

Forcing People into the Migrant Stream 51

The Sensenbrenner Family Business 64

Migrant Labor: An Indispensable Part of a Global System 70

The Profitability of Undocumented Labor 77

FOUR Fast Track to the Past 83

Not Enough Workers! 83

Modern-day Braceros 92

How Corporations Won the Debate on Immigration Reform 105

FIVE Which Side Are You On? 119

Paolo Freire on LA's Mean Streets 119

Los Angeles: Class War's Ground Zero 129

The Story of Ana Martinez 136

Immigration Enforcement Becomes a
Weapon to Stop Unions 142

Operation Vanguard 147

Immigrant Workers Ask Labor:
“Which Side Are You On?” 153

SIX Blacks Plus Immigrants Plus Unions Equals Power 167

Mississippi Battleground 167

Katrina: Window on a Nightmare 179

The Common Ground of Jobs and Rights 183

Remedy the Past’s Injustice 189

People in the Streets Want More 193

SEVEN Illegal People or Illegal Work? 199

Illegal Means Not European and Not White 200

Fighting Second-Class Status 209

Silicon Valley’s High-Tech Sweatshops 214

“What Future for Our Children?” 222

EIGHT Whose New World Order? 233

High Skills and Low Salaries 233

From Guest Worker to German Citizen 238

Suppressing Asylum Seekers While Promoting “Managed Migration” 243

Mode 4 and the UN Convention on the Rights of Migrants 246

Transnational Communities: A New Definition of Citizenship 250