

Ethical Dilemmas in Management

Edited by Christina Garsten and Tor Hernes

Contents

✓ uow

List of illustrations	viii
List of contributors	ix
Foreword	xiii
1 Introduction: dilemmas of ethical organizing	1
CHRISTINA GARSTEN AND TOR HERNES
From (ir)responsibility to accountability	1
Some deeper questions	2
Faith in formal standards and structure	4
The power of dilemmas	6
2 Risk, responsibility and conscience	11
TORRE BAKKEN
Introduction	11
Morality and responsibility	12
The morality of risk	15
The risk of morality	17
Conscience and responsibility	19
The conscience of the individual	20
The conscience of society	22
Conclusion	25
3 White as snow or milk?	28
TOR HERNES, GERHARD E. SCHJELDERUP AND ANNE LIVE VAAGAASAR
Companies and presentation	28
Discourse as structures of things	29
The making of a dairy corporation and its changing discursive structure	31
Cleanliness and ethics	34

	TINE's discursive strategies for handling ethical dilemmas	35
	Conclusion	39
4	Does rule-based moral management work?	42
	STEVE MCKENNA
	Diane	43
	Compcó's moral code	44
	The narrative	45
	Discussion	47
	Conscience	50
5	Challenges to leader integrity	53
	STEVEN L. GROVER AND ROBERT MOORMAN
	How leader integrity works	53
	Challenges	58
	Summary and conclusion	61
6	Transparency tricks	64
	CHRISTINA GARSTEN AND MONICA LINDH DE MONTOYA
	Introduction: transparency – a tale of our times	64
	Making things visible	67
	Articulating ethical dilemmas	69
	Visibility and accountability	71
	Concluding notes: transparency and ethical reflexivity	74
7	The power of activism	79
	DEBORA L. SPAR AND LANE T. LA MURE
	Introduction	79
	The business of NGOs	80
	A calculus of response	84
	Unocal in Burma	86
	Nike	90
	Novartis	92
	Conclusions: probing the power to persuade	95
8	Thoughts and second thoughts about Enron ethics	103
	RONALD R. SIMS AND JOHANNES BRINKMANN
	Introduction	103
	The history and culture of Enron	104

	The culture at Enron	105
	Leadership mechanisms and organizational culture at Enron	107
	Attention	107
	Reaction to crises	108
	Role modelling (how leaders behave)	109
	Allocation of rewards	110
	Criteria of selection and dismissal (how leaders hire and fire employees)	111
	Conclusion	112
9	No smoke without fire?	117
	TODD BRIDGMAN
	Business schools and CSR	118
	Constituting the business school and its conscience	121
	Articulation 1: The vocational/professional school	122
	Articulation 2: The academic department	124
	Articulation 3: The commercial enterprise	125
	Conclusion	128
10	Overmanagement and the problem of moral consciousness	132
	HERVÉ LAROCHE
	Judgemental pressure and overmanagement	133
	Strong involvement and overmanagement	137
	Overmanagement and moral consciousness	141
11	Tying some ends together	148
	CHRISTINA GARSTEN AND TOR HERNES
	Discursive structures and how to make sense of them	150
	Lightning rods	152
	Demarcation	153
	Articulation	155
	Visibilization	157
	Conclusion	158
	Index	161