Sustainability Challenges and Solutions at the Base of the Pyramid

BUSINESS, TECHNOLOGY AND THE POOR

EDITED BY PRABHU KANDACHAR AND MINNA HALME
Contents

Foreword ix
Stuart L. Hart

Introduction. Farewell to pyramids:
how can business and technology help to eradicate poverty? 1
Prabhu Kandachar, Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands, and Minna Halme, Helsinki School of Economics, Finland

Part I. Inclusive markets and BoP strategies 29

1 Understanding the markets of the poor:
a market system approach to inclusive business models 30
Christina Gradl, Emergia Institute/Martin-Luther-Universität Halle-Wittenberg, Germany
Sahba Sobhani, Afke Bootsman and Austine Gasnier, United Nations Development Programme

2 Lights on or trade off?
Can base-of-the-pyramid approaches deliver solutions to energy poverty? 51
Emma Wilson, Business and Sustainable Development Programme, International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED), Lyuba Zarsky, Monterey Institute for International Studies, Brian Shaad, Partnerships in Development, Ltd, and Ben Bundock, freelance researcher

Part II. Local enterprises at the BoP: cooperative efforts 69

3 WIZZIT: mobile banking for the poor in South Africa 70
Brian Richardson and Nicolas Callegari, WIZZIT South Africa
SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS AT THE BASE OF THE PYRAMID

4 The GP Community Information Centre: helping the poor through technology ..... 80
   A.H.M. Sultanur Reza, Head of Community Information Centre, Grameenphone, Bangladesh

5 Edenor SA: energy and development for the base of the pyramid ................. 103
   Miguel Angel Gardetti, Centre for Study of Corporate Sustainability, Argentina; Argentina Base of the Pyramid Learning Lab, and Ma Griselda Lassaga, Centre for Study of Corporate Sustainability, Argentina

6 Pro-poor enterprises and the base-of-the-pyramid concept: learning from natural plant product ventures in South Africa .................. 116
   Cori Ham and Wolfgang Thomas, Stellenbosch University, South Africa

7 Integrating poverty reduction and environmental protection among BoP producers: Van Chang craft village in Vietnam ............................... 132
   Nonita T. Yap, University of Guelph, Canada

8 The challenges and opportunities of creating sustainable shared values at the base of the pyramid: cases from sub-Saharan Africa .......... 146
   Samuel Petros Sebhatu, CTF; Service Research Centre, Karlstad University, Sweden

9 SEWA members: wheels of the pyramid. A case study ...................... 163
   Reema Nanavaty, Self Employed Women’s Association (SEWA), India

10 Reutilisation of waste glass leads to social and environmental sustainability in Brasilia ................................................................. 172
   Adriana Villela, Leila Chalub Martins, Maria de Fátima Makiuchi and Donald Sawyer, University of Brasilia, Brazil

11 Sustainable solid waste management using a base-of-the-pyramid approach . 193
   John Stutz, Tellus Institute, USA

12 Small is beautiful: solar product and market development should be scaled to the actual needs of end-users in the developing world .... 202
   K.M. Arkesteijn and A.E. Maaskant, Free Energy Europe, The Netherlands, and P. Steemers, Umeme Jua Ltd

Part III. Are BoP consumers and citizens included? .............................. 213

13 Consumer integration into innovation processes: a new approach for creating and enhancing innovations for the base of the pyramid? ...... 214
   Aline Krämer and Frank-Martin Belz, Technische Universität München, Germany

14 Research methods for subsistence marketplaces .................................. 242
   Madhu Viswanathan, Roland Gau and Avinash Chaturvedi,
   University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA
15 Investments at the base of the pyramid: reducing poverty through sustainable asset development
Janet Boguslaw, Heller School for Social Policy and Management, Brandeis University, USA, and Mary Ellen Boyle, Clark University Graduate School of Management, USA

Part IV. Capabilities, opportunities and challenges for MNCs in developing BoP business

16 Empowering creativity: a design-led innovation experience based on value co-creation and user insights
Simona Rocchi and Yasushi Kusume, Philips Design, The Netherlands

17 Affordable communication for rural communities
Mika Skarp and Raj Bansal, Nokia Siemens Networks, and Raimo Lovio and Minna Holme, Helsinki School of Economics, Finland

18 Understanding business models at the BoP: lessons learned from two South American utility companies
Juliana Mutis, Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya (UPC), and Joan Enric Ricart, IESE Business School, University of Navarra, Spain

19 Finding value and sustainability at the base of the pyramid
Naomi Wynburne and Rosalind Wilson, Emerging Markets Group (EMG) Ltd

20 Fortifying the business model: the case of Tetra Pak and the Nasarawa State school feeding programme in Nigeria
Aileen Ionescu-Somers and Ulrich Steger, Forum for Corporate Sustainability Management, IMD

21 Building dynamic capabilities for the base of the pyramid: a closer look at firm practices
Patrick Vermeulen, Judith Bertisen and Jac Geurts, Tilburg University, The Netherlands

22 Opportunities and challenges for multinational corporations at the base of the pyramid
Christine Keating and Tara Schmidt, London Business School, UK

Part V. Sustainability challenges and solutions

23 Transforming innovation and development practice in the Global South? Myths, realities and the prospects for base-of-the-pyramid approaches
James T. Murphy, Clark University, USA
SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS AT THE BASE OF THE PYRAMID

24 The environmental (un)sustainability of the base-of-the-pyramid (BoP) philosophy: a governance perspective .................................................. 430
Frank Wijen, Rotterdam School of Management, Erasmus University, The Netherlands

25 Sustainable development at the BoP: on integrated approaches beyond trade-off thinking .................................................. 446
Rüdiger Hahn, Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, Germany

26 When CSR meets BoP: ethical concerns at the base of the pyramid ............... 462
D. Kirk Davidson, Mount St Mary’s University, USA

27 Towards ‘Human Development through the Market’: a comparative review of business approaches benefiting low-income markets from a sustainable consumption and production perspective ........................................... 475
Burcu Tuncer, Fisseha Tessema and Nadine Pratt, UNEP/Wuppertal Institute Collaborating Centre on Sustainable Consumption and Production (CSCP), Germany, and Martin Herrndorf, University of St Gallen, Switzerland

About the contributors ........................................................................... 501
Abbreviations and acronyms .................................................................. 511
Index ................................................................................................. 515