In the wake of the crisis: Argentina's new economic and labour policy directions and their impact

Marta Novick, Carlos Tomada, Mario Damill, Roberto Frenkel and Roxana Maurizio

Introduction by Juan Somavia
Contents

Preface by Gerry Rodgers ........................................ v

Introduction by Juan Somavia ................................... ix

Argentina 2003-2006: Economic growth with decent work
A new model for Latin America?
   by Marta Novick and Carlos Tomada .......................... 1

  Executive summary .............................................. 3
  Introduction ..................................................... 5
  The European debate and its relevance for Latin America ...... 6
  The Argentine experience prior to 2003 ....................... 13
  Macro-economic policy and the role of labour ............... 18
  Labour policies: objectives and strategies .................. 26
  The agenda of unresolved issues ............................... 39
  Conclusions .................................................... 41
  Bibliography ................................................... 47

Macroeconomic policy changes in Argentina at the turn of the century
   by Mario Damill, Roberto Frenkel and Roxana Maurizio .... 51

  Executive summary .............................................. 53
  Introduction ..................................................... 57
  1. The convertibility regime and the Argentine economy in the nineties .......... 57
  2. The labour market in the nineties ................................................... 69
  3. The post-convertibility macroeconomic regime and performance ................... 74
  4. The evolution of employment and unemployment in the recovery phase ........... 105

  Bibliography and references ................................ 127