Interests, Auxiliary and Alternative Remedies in International Arbitration

Edited by Filip De Ly and Laurent Lévy
Contents

FOREWORD ................................................................. 5
By Serge Lazareff

INTRODUCTION .......................................................... 7
By Laurent Lévy, Co-Editor

1. Contractual remedies: clauses pénales and liquidated damages clauses ......................................................... 13
Antonias Dimolitsa

2. Judicial penalties and specific performance in international arbitration ............................................................................ 53
Alexis Mourre

3. Compound interest and specific performance: "arbitral imperium" and sections 49 and 48 of the English Arbitration Act 1996 .................................................................................................. 81
V.V. Veeder

4. How to control the impact of time running between the occurrence of the damage and its full compensation: complementary and alternative remedies in interim relief proceedings ........................................................................ 91
John Beechey and Gareth Kenny

5. Issues of applicable law and uniform law on interest: basic distinctions in national and international practice .......................... 131
Andrea Giardina

6. A study of interest .......................................................................................................................... 169
John Y. Gotanda

7. The issue of interest in Middle East laws and Islamic law ........................................................................... 203
Tarek Fouad A. Riad
A practitioner’s approach to interest claims under Sharia law in international arbitration ......................................................... 211
Homayoon Arfazadeh

Present-day valuation in international arbitration: a conceptual framework for awarding interest ......................................................... 219
Thierry Sénéchal

CONCLUDING REMARKS ..................................................................................................................................................... 237
By Filip De Ly, Co-Editor

KEY-WORDS INDEX ................................................................................................................................................................. 247