Contents

List of Illustrations viii
About the Editors x
Contributors xi
Chapter Summaries xix
Acknowledgements xxvi

Introduction: a new paradigm for coaching in the global business environment 1
Michel C. Moral, Geoffrey Abbott and Danièle Darmouni

Section 1: International coaching frameworks and tools

1 Considerations on the emergence of organizational coaching: international perspectives 15
Michel C. Moral and Sabine K. Henrichfreise

2 Integral coaching: cultivating a cultural sensibility through executive coaching 34
Hilary Armstrong

3 Coaching to hidden frames: facilitating transformational change in complex environments 45
L. Michael Hall, Michelle Duval and Omar Salom

4 Identity, liminality and development: an intrapersonal view of intercultural sensitivity 61
David B. Drake

5 Ontological coaching: intercultural coaching and trust 75
Julio Olalla and the Newfield Community
CONTENTS

6 Coaching for emotional intelligence in international business environments: challenges and opportunities
Geetu Bharwaney and Ari Jokilaakso

7 Coaching international leaders to succeed collectively: the re-genesis of collective intelligence, our genuine capacity for collectively creating our future
Sabine K. Henrichfreise

8 The heart of cross-cultural creation: inclusion and presence that produce something greater Danièle Darmouni and Margaret A. Krigbaum

9 Stimulating adversarial growth in cultural uncertainty: a survival guide for international executives and their coaches
Eddie Lievrouw

10 Fostering individual and collective development using the Cultural Orientations Framework (COF™) assessment
Philippe Rosinski

11 Intercultural coaching tools: a constructivist approach
Monika Verhulst and Rebecca Sprengel

Section 2: Organizational challenges and opportunities – individual

12 Coaching expatriate executives: working in context across the affective, behavioral and cognitive domains
Geoffrey Abbott and Bruce W. Stening

13 Couples coaching for expatriate couples: a sound investment for international businesses
Andrew L. Miser and Martha F. Miser

14 Coaching women managers in multinational companies
Katrina Burrus

15 Coaching managers in multinational companies: myths and realities of the Global Nomadic Leader
Katrina Burrus

Section 3: Organizational challenges and opportunities – collective

16 When Far East meets West: seeking cultural synthesis through coaching
Ho Law, Leon Laulusa and Grace Cheng

17 Executive team coaching in multinational companies
Michiel C. Moral
CONTENTS

18 Coaching with global virtual teams: an action learning perspective
   Geoffrey Abbott 269

19 Interactive coaching with corporate ventures
   Jean-Marc Loeser and Katrina Burrus 282

20 Executive coaching through cross-border mergers and acquisitions: a powerful yet under-utilized intervention
   Geoffrey Abbott 299

21 International coaching: a global human resources perspective
   Marie-Brigitte Bissen, Judith Chapman, Paul-Michael Schonenberg and Rita Knott 318

22 Choosing coaches for international business leaders?: qualities and characteristics
   Geoffrey Abbott and Chip McFarlane 331

Conclusion
   Michel C. Moral and Geoffrey Abbott 345

Subject index 349
Author index 355