The Political Economy of the Polish Agricultural Sector's Accession to the European Union

Katarzyna KOSIOR

University of Information Technology and Management

Rzeszów 2005
1 Agricultural and EU Enlargement Processes ........................................ 9
  1.1 Eastern enlargement of the European Union ........................................ 9
      1.2 The role of agriculture in the EC/EU enlargement processes .............. 13
          1.2.1 Historical development of the CAP ......................................... 13
          1.2.2 Agriculture in the past enlargements of the EC/EU .................... 16
          1.2.3 Agriculture of the CEECs on the road to the EU ....................... 19
  1.3 Specification of research subject, research aims and research questions ... 21
  1.4 Structure of the study ........................................................................ 24

2 European agricultural integration: the state of the art ............................ 25
  2.1 Political economy of EU enlargement .................................................. 26
  2.2 Explaining the strength of agricultural interests ................................... 28
  2.3 East – West agricultural integration ..................................................... 32
      2.3.1 Polish post-communist agriculture and peasantry in sociological research ................................................................. 32
      2.3.2 Transformation and integration in agriculture in the research of agricultural economists and political scientists ....................... 35
  2.4 Summary ............................................................................................ 41

3. Theoretical and methodological framework of the study ....................... 42
  3.1 Research perspective of the study ....................................................... 42
  3.2 Main approaches to negotiations ....................................................... 44
      3.2.1 Basic concepts of the negotiation theory ...................................... 45
      3.2.2 General model of negotiation situation ....................................... 47
      3.2.3 Power of alternatives ................................................................. 48
      3.2.4 Distributive and Integrative Bargaining .................................... 48
      3.2.5 The Negotiator’s Dilemma ......................................................... 49
  3.3 Theoretical framework of the study .................................................... 50
      3.3.1 Negotiations as a two-level game .............................................. 50
          3.3.1.1 Tying hands strategy ......................................................... 54
3.3.1.2 Cutting slack strategy .......................................................... 54
3.3.1.3 Strategies addressed at the acceptability set of the negotiating partner .......................................................... 55
3.3.2 The theory of national preference formation .............................................. 56
3.3.3 An integrated approach – the two-level games and national preferences ............................................................................. 60
3.4 Approaching the two-level games in the accession negotiations between Poland and the EU .......................................................... 63
3.4.1 Specificity of the EU accession negotiations ........................................... 63
3.4.2 Problems of asymmetry ............................................................................. 65
3.4.3 Hypotheses ............................................................................................. 66
3.5 Research methods ..................................................................................... 68

4. Polish agriculture in the transformation process ........................................ 71
4.1 Historical background to agricultural and rural development in Poland ...... 71
4.1.1 Major sectoral developments under communism (1945-1989) .......... 72
4.2 Polish agriculture in transition from a centrally planned economy ........ 79
4.3 The Polish agri-food economy on the eve of accession to the EU ............ 82
4.3.1 The role of agriculture in Poland’s economy ........................................ 82
4.3.2 The structure of farming and characteristics of Polish farms .............. 85
4.3.3 Agricultural production and profitability .............................................. 91
4.3.4 Downstream and upstream sectors ..................................................... 95
4.3.5 Foreign trade in agri-food products .................................................... 98
4.4 Summary .............................................................................................. 102

5 National preferences in Poland with regard to agriculture and its integration to the EU .......................................................... 104
5.1 Social and political setting of agricultural policy making in Poland ...... 105
5.2 Agricultural policy formation 1989-2002 ................................................. 108
5.2.1 The post-solidarity governments (1989-1993) ..................................... 108
5.2.2 The SLD-PSL government (1993-1997) ............................................. 111
5.2.3 The rule of AWS and UW (1997-2001) ............................................. 113
5.2.4 The SLD/UP/PSL government ......................................................... 117
5.2.5 Summary: the sources of the strength of agricultural interests in Poland .......................................................... 118
5.3 Interests of domestic actors and the EU integration ................................ 121
5.3.1 Farmers’ attitude toward the EU ....................................................... 121
5.3.2 Agricultural trade unions ................................................................. 124
5.3.3 Food processing industry ................................................................. 126
5.3.4 Political actors and agricultural integration ....................................... 128
5.4 Polish integration policy in the area of agriculture and the food industry .. 129
5.4.1 Basic assumptions of national strategy for integration to the EU ....... 129
5.4.2 Agricultural policy alignment ................................................. 132
  5.4.2.1 The course of preparations for the EU accession ............... 135
5.5 Summary .................................................................................. 142

6 The EU-Polish accession negotiations on agriculture ......................... 145
  6.1 General conditions of the accession negotiations ....................... 145
  6.2 Major negotiation issues in the agricultural chapter .................. 152
    6.2.1 Direct payments .......................................................... 153
    6.2.2 Supply management measures ...................................... 155
    6.2.3 Food safety, veterinary and phytosanitary aspects ............... 156
  6.3 The Polish negotiating position on agriculture .......................... 157
  6.4 First phase of the EU-Polish bargaining on agriculture 2000-2001 .... 164
  6.5 End-game of the accession negotiations: Level II ..................... 169
    6.5.1 The European Commission proposal on the EU Draft
         Common Position on Agriculture – January 2002 .................. 169
    6.5.2 The internal negotiations between EU member states on financial conditions of agricultural integration ............... 171
    6.5.3 Level II developments in Poland in the final stage of the negotiations ....................................................... 176
      6.5.3.1 Domestic reactions in Poland to the Commission’s
               January proposals .................................................. 178
      6.5.3.2 Poland’s preparations for final negotiations ................. 182
  6.6 Final negotiations at Level I – the European Council in Copenhagen:
      December 2002 ................................................................ 187
    6.6.1 Outcomes of the accession negotiations on agriculture ......... 191
      6.6.1.1 Overall financial conditions ..................................... 191
      6.6.1.2 Direct payments, other CAP instruments and special provisions .............................................. 193
      6.6.1.3 Supply management measures .................................. 196
      6.6.1.4 Food safety, veterinary and phytosanitary issues ............ 198
  6.7 Testing the hypotheses ......................................................... 200
    6.7.1 Domestic scene in Poland: agents versus hawks ................. 201
    6.7.2 Final bargaining: double-edged strategies ......................... 204
      6.7.2.1 Polish negotiators’ focus on domestic constraints ......... 205
      6.7.2.2 Intentional imposition of additional domestic constraints ... 206
    6.7.3 The EU negotiators’ actions ........................................... 210
      6.7.3.1 Enlarging the Polish win-set .................................... 211
  6.8 Summary .................................................................................. 216

7 Summary and concluding remarks .................................................. 218

Index of sources and literature ....................................................... 233

About the author ............................................................................ 255