Contents

Chapter 1 MANAGING EMPLOYEES FOR COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE 2

MANAGING EMPLOYEES 4
What's in a Name? 4 • The Costs and Benefits of Managing HR 5

FRAMEWORK FOR THE STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT OF EMPLOYEES 7

PRIMARY HR ACTIVITIES 8
Work Design and Workforce Planning 8 • Job Design 9 • Workforce Planning 9 • Managing Employee Competencies 10 • Recruitment 10 • Selection 10 • Training 11 • Managing Employee Attitudes and Behaviors 11 • Performance Management 11 • Compensation and Incentives 12 • Employee Benefits, Health, and Wellness 12 • HR Activities Alignment 13

HR CHALLENGES 14
Challenge 1: Cultures Meeting Organizational Demands 14 • Strategy 14 • Company Characteristics 15 • Organizational Cultures 15 • Employee Concerns 15 • Challenge 2: Environmental Influences 16 • Labor Force Trends 16 • Technology 17 • Globalization 17 • Ethics and Social Responsibility 18 • Challenge 3: Regulatory Issues 18

THE PLAN FOR THIS BOOK 19
Chapters 2-3: HR Challenges 19 • Chapters 4-5: Work Design and Workforce Planning 19 • Chapters 6-8: Managing Employee Competencies 19 • Chapters 9-12: Managing Employee Attitudes and Behaviors 19 • Chapters 13-14: Special Topics 20

Summary 21 • Key Terms 21 • Discussion Questions 21 • Learning Exercise 1 21 • Learning Exercise 2 22 • Case Study 1: The New Job 22 • Case Study 2: Employees Love Wegmans 23

PART I HR CHALLENGES 25

Chapter 2 ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS AND ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES 26

THE IMPORTANCE OF CONTEXT 28

MEETING ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 28
Strategy 30 • Low-Cost Strategy and Managing Employees 31 • Differentiation Strategy and Managing Employees 31 • Company Characteristics 32 • Company Size 32 • Stage of Development 32 • Organizational Culture 33 • Employee Concerns 34 • Work/Life Balance 36 • Justice 36
PART II Work Design and Workforce Planning 83

chapter 4 JOB DESIGN AND JOB ANALYSIS 84

THE IMPORTANCE OF JOB DESIGN AND JOB ANALYSIS 86

JOB DESIGN 88

Efficiency Approaches to Job Design 88 • Motivational Approaches to Job Design 90 • Changing Job Tasks 91 • Increasing Responsibility and Participation 92 • Employee Teams 93 • Which Approach to Use? Balancing Efficiency and Motivational Approaches 94

JOB DESCRIPTIONS AND JOB SPECIFICATIONS 94

JOB ANALYSIS 96

Job Information 96 • Observations and Diaries 97 • Interviews 97 • Questionnaires 98 • Occupational Information Network (O*NET) 98 • Job Analysis Techniques 98

JOB DESIGN IN PRACTICE: MEETING ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 100

Strategy and Job Design 101 • Job Design Approach Adopted 101 • Breadth of Tasks, Duties, and Responsibilities Performed 101 • Company Characteristics and Job Design 101 • Formalization of Jobs 101 • Breadth and Depth of Tasks 102 • Culture and Job Design 102 • Managerial Choices of Job Design Tactics 102 • Employee Acceptance of Job Design Decisions 102 • Employee Concerns and Job Design 102 • Perception of Fairness of Job Duties 103 • Need for Flexible Work Arrangements 103

JOB DESIGN IN PRACTICE: ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES 104

Labor Force Trends and Job Design 104 • Skill Availability to Perform Tasks 104 • Job Design Decisions for the Aging Labor Force 105 • Technology and Job Design 105 • Telecommuting 105 • Virtual Teams 106 • Globalization and Job Design 106 • Need to Address Cross-Cultural Issues 107 • Relevant Labor Market 107 • Ethics and Job Design 107 • Concerns about Types of Tasks Required 107 • Attitudes Toward Physical Conditions of Job Design 108

JOB DESIGN IN PRACTICE: REGULATORY ISSUES 108

Importance of Identifying Essential and Non-Essential Job Duties 109 • Job Design and Employee Safety 109

Summary 110 • Key Terms 110 • Discussion Questions 110 • Learning Exercise 1 111 • Learning Exercise 2 111 • Learning Exercise 3 111 • Case Study 1: Home-Sourcing at Alpine Access 111 • Case Study 2: Rethinking Jobs at Ellers Technical Support Professionals (ETSP) 112

Appendix to Chapter 4 Standardized and Customized Approaches to Job Analysis 113

STANDARDIZED APPROACHES TO JOB ANALYSIS 113

Functional Job Analysis (FJA) 113 • Position Analysis Questionnaire (PAQ) 115
WORKFORCE PLANNING 118

THE IMPORTANCE OF WORKFORCE PLANNING 120

WORKFORCE PLANNING 121

FORECASTING LABOR SUPPLY AND LABOR DEMAND 122

Internal Factors 122 • Turnover 122 • Employee Movements 124 • Employee Productivity 125 • Company Performance 126 • Strategic Direction 126 • External Factors 127 • Local Labor Market 127 • Economic Conditions 127 • Industry Trends 127

TACTICS FIRMS USE TO BALANCE THEIR SUPPLY AND DEMAND FOR LABOR 128

Labor Shortage Tactics 128 • Employee Overtime 128 • Outsourcing and Contingent Labor 130 • Employee Retention 130 • Employee Promotions, Transfers, and Demotions 130 • New Hires 130 • Labor Surplus Tactics 130 • Layoffs 130 • Attrition and Hiring Freezes 131 • Early Retirement 131 • Employee Promotions, Transfers, and Demotions 132

WORKFORCE PLANNING IN PRACTICE: ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 132

Strategy and Workforce Planning 132 • Required Speed to Deal with Shortages and Surpluses 133 • Criticality of Employee Groups 133 • Company Characteristics and Workforce Planning 133 • The Relative Impact of Labor Shortages and Surpluses 133 • Who Carries Out Workforce Planning 133 • Corporate Culture and Workforce Planning 134 • Likelihood of Firms Using Different Tactics 134 • Employee Reactions to Workforce Planning Tactics 134 • Employee Concerns and Workforce Planning 134 • Employee Stress and Work/Life Balance Issues 134 • Perceptions of Procedural and Distributive Justice 135

ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES AND WORKFORCE PLANNING 135

Labor Force Trends and Workforce Planning 136 • Availability of Internal and External Workers 136 • Which Tactics to Use 136 • Technology and Workforce Planning 136 • The Number of Employees Needed 137 • The Types of Workers Needed 137 • The Quality of Workforce Planning Forecasts 138 • Globalization and Workforce Planning Tactics to Use 138 • Ethics and Workforce Planning 139 • Community Reactions to Workforce Planning Tactics 139 • How Companies Help Employees Cope 140

REGULATORY ISSUES AND WORKFORCE PLANNING 140

Requirements for Mass Layoffs and Plant Closings 140 • Determining Who Is an Employee versus an Independent Contractor 141

Summary 142 • Key Terms 143 • Discussion Questions 143 • Learning Exercise 1 143 • Learning Exercise 2 144 • Case Study 1: Planning for the Future at East Coast Bank 144 • Case Study 2: The Turnaround at Ford 145

PART II PROSPERA EXERCISES 146
PART III  Managing Employee Competencies  147

chapter  RECRUITMENT  148

THE PURPOSE OF RECRUITMENT  150

THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS  151

INTERNAL RECRUITMENT  152
  Internal Recruitment Methods  152 • Advantages and Disadvantages of Internal Recruitment  154

EXTERNAL RECRUITMENT  154
  Advertising  155 • Educational Institutions  157 • Employment Agencies and Employee Search
  Firms  158 • Professional Associations  159 • Temporary Employees  159 • Employee Referrals  159 • Sourcing Applicants  159 • Re-recruiting  160 • Advantages and Disadvantages of External Recruitment  160

MAXIMIZING RECRUITMENT EFFECTIVENESS  160
  Preparing Recruitment Advertisements  161 • Developing a Recruitment Value Proposition  161
  • Writing a Recruitment Message  162 • Recruiters  164 • Realistic Job Previews  164
  • Recruitment Follow-Up  164 • Recruitment Effectiveness  165

RECRUITMENT IN PRACTICE: ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS  165
  Strategy and Recruitment  166 • Content of a Recruitment Message  166 • Choice of Recruitment
  Methods  166 • Company Characteristics and Recruitment  167 • Use of Internal versus External Recruiting  167 • Who Manages Recruitment  167 • Culture and Recruitment  167 • Recruitment Value Proposition  168 • Balance of Internal versus External Recruiting  168 • Employee Concerns and Recruitment  168 • Appraisal of Recruitment Message  168 • Perception of Fairness of the Process  169

RECRUITMENT IN PRACTICE: ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES  169
  The Labor Force and Recruitment  169 • Target of Recruitment  169 • How Much Recruitment Is Needed  171 • Technology and Recruitment  171 • How Recruitment Is Managed  171 • Skills Recruited  172 • Globalization and Recruitment  173 • How Recruiting Is Done  173 • Where Recruiting Is Done  173 • Ethics, Corporate Social Responsibility, and Recruitment  174 • Value
  Proposition Offered  174 • Truth-in-Hiring  174 • Targets of Recruitment  174

REGULATORY ISSUES AND RECRUITMENT  175
  Content of a Recruitment Message  175 • Recruiter Words and Actions  175 • Record Keeping  176
  Summary  176 • Key Terms  176 • Discussion Questions  177 • Learning Exercise 1  177
  • Learning Exercise 2  177 • Case Study 1: The Recruiting Game at L’Oréal  178 • Case Study 2:
  Enron: A Not So Happy Ending to a Good Recruiting Plan  178
Appendix to Chapter 6 Metrics Used to Evaluate an Organization’s Recruiting Effectiveness 179

YIELD RATIOS 179

COST-PER-HIRE 180

TIME-TO-FILL RATE 180

MANAGER FEEDBACK 180

BENCHMARKING BEST PRACTICES 181

chapter SELECTION 182

EMPLOYEE SELECTION AND THE PERFORMANCE OF FIRMS 184

Selection Defined 184 • How Employee Selection Processes Affect the Performance of Firms 185

PERSON-JOB FIT 186

STANDARDS FOR EFFECTIVE SELECTION PROCESS 187

Reliability 187 • Validity 188 • Unbiased 189 • Candidates’ Personal Characteristics 189
• Contrast Effect 189 • Halo/Devil’s Horns Effect 189 • Impression Management 189

SELECTION METHODS: INITIAL SCREENING 190

Applications and Résumés 190 • Screening Interview 192

SELECTION METHODS: FINAL SCREENING 192

Employment Tests 192 • Ability Tests 192 • Achievement/Competency Tests 193 • Personality
Inventories 193 • When to Use Employment Tests 194 • Interviews 194 • Unstructured
Interviews 195 • Structured Interviews 195 • Reference Checks, Background Checks, Credit Reports, and Honesty Tests 196 • Assessment Centers 199 • Biodata 200 • Drug Tests 200
• Medical Examinations 200

CHOOSING AMONG SELECTION METHODS 201

Compensatory Approach 201 • Multiple-Hurdle Approach 203 • Multiple-Cutoff Approach 203
• Choosing a Scoring Method 203

SELECTION IN PRACTICE: ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 204

Strategy and Selection 204 • Core Competencies 205 • Selection Criteria for Person-Job Fit 206
• Methods of Selection 206 • Company Characteristics and Selection 206 • Degree of Structure 206
• Substance and Form of the Selection Process 206 • Culture and Selection 207 • Person-Organization
Fit 207 • Promotion-from-Within Policy 208 • Who Participates in the Selection Process 208 • Employee
Concerns and Selection 208 • Fair and Equal Treatment 208 • Impact of Job on Work/Life Balance 208
SELECTION IN PRACTICE: ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES 209
Labor Market and Selection 209 • Types of Applicants Available 209 • Willingness of Applicants to Accept Jobs 210 • Technology and Selection 210 • Technology and the Process of Selection 210 • Verification of Credentials 211 • Globalization and Selection 211 • Labor Market at Home 211 • Labor Market Abroad 212 • Ethics and Employee Selection 213 • Concerns about Privacy 213 • Amount and Type of Information Given to Applicants 213

SELECTION IN PRACTICE: REGULATORY ISSUES 213
Procedures for Using Selection Measures 214 • Definition of an Applicant 214
Summary 215 • Key Terms 215 • Discussion Questions 216 • Learning Exercise 1 216 • Learning Exercise 2 216 • Case Study 1: Selection at First Apparel 216 • Case Study 2: Virtual Selection at National City Corporation 217

Appendix to Chapter 7 Reliability and Validity 218

RELIABILITY 218

VALIDITY 218
Content Validity 218 • Criterion-Related Validity 218 • Construct Validity 219

CHAPTER 8 TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT 220

THE PURPOSE OF TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT 222
Employee Orientation 223 • Onboarding 224

TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT DEFINED 224

DESIGNING AN EFFECTIVE TRAINING PROCESS 225
Part 1: Needs Assessment 225 • Organization Analysis 225 • Task Analysis 225 • Person Analysis 227 • Part 2: Design 228 • Instructional Objectives 228 • Lesson Planning 228 • Principles of Learning 229 • Part 3: Implementation 230 • Training Methods 231 • Types of Training 236 • Part 4: Evaluation 238 • Level 1: Reaction 238 • Level 2: Learning 239 • Level 3: Behavior 239 • Level 4 and Level 5: Results and Return on Investment 240

CAREER DEVELOPMENT 240
Competency Analysis 241 • Career Development Activities 241

TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT IN PRACTICE: ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 241
Strategy and Training 241 • Level of Investment 242 • Emphasis of Investment 243 • Company Characteristics and Training 243 • Where Training Is Done 243 • Who Handles Training 244 • Type of Training 244 • How Training Is Provided 244 • Culture and Training 245 • Focus of Training 245 • Employees Willingness to Participate in Training 245 • Employee Concerns and Training 245 • Fairness and Equity 245 • Work/Life Balance 246
TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT IN PRACTICE: ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES 246

- Labor Market 246 • Who Needs Training 246 • Type of Training 247 • Technology 247 • Skills Inventories 247 • Method of Delivery 247 • Communication of Options 247 • Globalization and Training 248 • Where Training will be Offered 248 • When Training will be offered 248 • How Training will be Offered 248 • What Training will be Offered 249 • Ethics and Training 249 • Obligation to Train 250 • Content of Training 250 • Use of Training to Change Behavior 250

TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT IN PRACTICE: REGULATORY ISSUES 251

- Accessibility of Training and Employee Development Opportunities 251 • Type of Training Needed 251

Summary 252 • Key Terms 252 • Discussion Questions 253 • Learning Exercise 1 253 • Learning Exercise 2 253 • Case Study 1: Project Management and Next Steps at HP 253 • Case Study 2: Quality and Customer Service at Michael’s Coffee and Desserts 254

PART III PROSPERA EXERCISES 256

PART IV Managing Employee Attitudes and Behaviors 257

CHAPTER PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 258

WHY PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT IS SO IMPORTANT 260

PURPOSES OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 261

STEP 1: IDENTIFYING PERFORMANCE DIMENSIONS 261

STEP 2: DEVELOPING PERFORMANCE MEASURES 262

- Valid Measures 263 • Performance Measurement Standards 263 • Specificity 263

STEP 3: EVALUATING EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE 264

- Individual Comparisons 264 • Absolute Approaches: Measuring Traits and Behaviors 265 • Attribute-Based Approaches 266 • Behavior-Based Approaches 267 • Results-Based Approaches 268 • Sources of Performance Data 269 • Supervisors 269 • Co-Workers 270 • Self-Appraisals 270 • Subordinates 270 • Customer Evaluation 270 • 360-Degree Appraisals 271 • Weighting Performance Criteria 271 • Performance Measurement Errors 272

STEP 4: PROVIDING FEEDBACK 273

- When to Appraise Employees 273 • The Feedback Meeting 274 • Separating Evaluation from Development 274 • Targeting Behaviors or Outcomes Rather Than the Individual 274 • Being Balanced in Your Appraisal 274 • Encouraging Employee Participation 274

STEP 5: DEVELOPING ACTION PLANS TO IMPROVE EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE 274

- Understanding the Causes of Poor Performance 275 • Taking Action 275 • Disciplining Employees 276 • Progressive Discipline 276 • Positive Discipline 277
ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS AND PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 277

Strategy and Performance Management 278 • Which Performance Dimensions are Emphasized 278
• The Performance Evaluation Method Used 279 • Company Characteristics and Performance Management 280 • Which Performance Evaluation Approach is Used 280 • Who Carries Out the Process 280 • Culture and Performance Management 280 • The Objective of the Performance Management System 280 • Which Evaluation Approach is Used 280 • Effectiveness of Performance Management Approaches 281 • Employee Concerns and Performance Management 281 • Perceptions of Procedural and Distributive Justice 281 • Employees’ Responsiveness to Performance Feedback 282
• Achieving Work/Life Balance 282

ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES AND PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 283

Labor Force Trends and Performance Management 283 • Accuracy of Performance Evaluations 283
• The Need to Evaluate Diversity Efforts 283 • Technology and Performance Management 283 • The Performance Management Process 283 • How Telecommuters are Evaluated 284 • Globalization and Performance Management 284 • What is Evaluated 285 • The Acceptability of the Performance Management System 285 • Who Provides Performance Data 285 • Ethics and Performance Management 286 • Employees’ Perceptions of the Performance Management System 286 • How Employees React to Surveillance and Monitoring 286 • How Ethically Employees Behave at Work 286

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AND REGULATORY ISSUES 287

Efforts to Reduce Discrimination in the Performance Management Process 287 • The Importance of Documenting Employee Performance 287

Summary 288 • Key Terms 289 • Discussion Questions 289 • Learning Exercise 1 289
• Learning Exercise 2 289 • Case Study 1: A New System at Addillade and Partners 290 • Case Study 2: Kay Johnson at Human Capital Consultants (HCC) 290

COMPENSATING EMPLOYEES 292

PURPOSE OF COMPENSATION 294

TOTAL COMPENSATION 295

EQUITY THEORY 296

INTERNAL ALIGNMENT 298

Job Ranking 298 • Job Classification 298 • Point Method 299 • Factor Comparison 300

EXTERNAL COMPETITIVENESS 301

Salary Surveys 301 • Job Pricing 301 • Company Pay Policy 303 • Pay Grades and Pay Ranges 303 • Broadbanding 304

PAY FOR INDIVIDUAL EMPLOYEES 305
INCENTIVES IN PRACTICE: ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 337

Strategy and Incentives 338 • What is Rewarded 338 • Which Incentive Plans are Used 338 • Company Characteristics and Incentives 338 • Feasibility of Different Incentive Plans 338 • Impact of Incentives on Employees 339 • Culture and Incentives 339 • Incentive Plans Managers Choose 339 • Employees’ Acceptance of Incentive Plans 339 • Employee Concerns and Incentives 340 • Fairness of Incentive Plan Standards 340 • Likelihood of Receiving Incentives 341 • Acceptability of Incentive Payouts 341

INCENTIVES IN PRACTICE: ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES 341

Labor Force Trends and Incentive Plans 342 • Using Incentives to Increase Diversity 342 • Desirability of Different Rewards 342 • Technology and Incentives 342 • How Incentives are Managed 342 • Incentive Plans for a Virtual Workforce 343 • Globalization and Incentive Plans 343 • What is Rewarded 343 • Acceptability of Incentive Plans 344 • Ethics, Social Responsibility, and Incentive Plans 344 • Ethical Employee Behavior 344 • How Employees and Communities View Executive Incentive Plans 345

INCENTIVES IN PRACTICE: REGULATORY ISSUES 345

Bias and Discrimination 345 • Stock Option Backdating 346

Summary 346 • Key Terms 347 • Discussion Questions 347 • Learning Exercise 1 347 • Learning Exercise 2 347 • Case Study 1: A New Incentive System at the Auto Dealer 348 • Case Study 2: Executive Compensation at AB3D 348

CHAPTER 12 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AND SAFETY PROGRAMS 350

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AND SAFETY PROGRAMS 352

BENEFITS AND SAFETY PHILOSOPHY 354

MANDATORY BENEFITS 354

Social Security 354 • Unemployment Insurance (UI) 355 • Workers’ Compensation Insurance 356

VOLUNTARY BENEFITS 356

Health and Wellness Programs 356 • Health Care Plans 357 • Wellness Programs 361 • Employee Assistance Programs 363 • Short- and Long-Term Disability Insurance 363 • Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D) 365 • Life Management Benefits 365 • Paid Time Off 366 • Educational Assistance 366 • Child Care and Elder Care 366 • Long-Term Care Benefits 366 • Life Insurance 367 • Financial Planning 367 • Legal Services 367 • Retirement Benefits 367 • Contributory and Noncontributory Retirement Plans 368 • Defined Benefit Pension Plans 368 • Defined Contribution Plans 369 • Pension Protection Act of 2006 370 • Retiree Health Plans 370

BENEFITS ADMINISTRATION 370

SAFETY PROGRAMS 372

Programs Related to the Occupational Safety and Health Act 372 • Inspection Programs 372 • Partnership Programs 372 • Reporting Requirements 373 • Workplace Violence Programs 373 • Ergonomic Programs 373
EMPLOYEE BENEFITS IN PRACTICE: ORGANIZATIONAL DEMANDS 374
Strategy, Benefits, and Safety Programs 374 • Role of Programs in Total Compensation Package 374
• Funds Available for Benefits 375 • Company Characteristics, Benefits, and Safety Programs 375
• Types of Benefits and Safety Programs 375 • Availability of Programs 376 • Company Culture, Benefits, and Safety Programs 377 • Employees’ Attitudes Toward Their Firm’s Benefits and Safety Programs 377 • Who Receives Nonmandatory Benefits 378 • Employees’ Concerns About Their Firm’s Benefits and Safety Programs 378 • Perceptions of Fairness of the Firm’s Benefits 378 • Safety in the Workplace 379

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS, AND SAFETY IN PRACTICE: ENVIRONMENTAL INFLUENCES 379
The Labor Market and Benefits and Safety Programs 379 • What Benefits Need to be Offered 379
• Need for Safety Modifications and Training 379 • Technology and Benefits and Safety Programs 380
• How Benefits Information is Delivered 380 • Telecommuting and Safety 380 • Globalization and Employee Benefits and Safety Programs 381 • Types of Benefits Offered 381 • Policies about Benefits Equalization 382 • Norms Relative to Safety 382 • Ethics and Social Responsibility and Benefits and Safety Programs 382 • Management of Benefits 382 • Comprehensiveness of Safety Programs 383

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS IN PRACTICE: REGULATORY ISSUES 383
What Happens When Workers Change Jobs 383 • Protection of Employee Information 384
Summary 384 • Key Terms 384 • Discussion Questions 385 • Learning Exercise 1 385 • Learning Exercise 2 386 • Case Study 1: Keeping Up with ACUITY 386 • Case Study 2: Creating a Safety Culture at Custom Transportation 386

PART IV PROSPERA EXERCISES 388

PART V Special Topics 389

LABOR UNIONS AND EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT 390

LABOR RELATIONS OVERVIEW 392

BRIEF HISTORY OF LABOR UNION MOVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES 392

GOVERNMENT REGULATION OF LABOR UNIONS 394

TYPES OF UNIONS 398
Local Unions 399 • International Unions 400
THE UNION-ORGANIZING PROCESS 400
Role of Employees, Employers, and Union Organizers 401 • Card Checks and Neutrality Agreements 401

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING 402
Good Faith Bargaining 402 • Bad Faith Bargaining 402 • Negotiating the Agreement 402
• Preparing to Negotiate 402 • Knowing the Interests of the Other Party 403 • Understanding the Consequences of Not Reaching an Acceptable Agreement 403

THE GRIEVANCE PROCESS 404

THE NLRB'S ROLE IN UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES 405

DECERTIFICATION 405

CORPORATE CAMPAIGNS 405

PUBLIC-SECTOR LABOR RELATIONS 406

TRENDS IN LABOR RELATIONS 406
Changes in Union Activities 406 • New Forms of Employee Organizations 407 • Global Trends 408
Summary 409 • Key Terms 409 • Discussion Questions 410 • Learning Exercise 1 410
• Learning Exercise 2 410 • Case Study 1: Time for a Union at Starbuck's? 410 • Case Study 2: Not So Grand Morale at the Grand Limited Hotel 411

CREATING HIGH-PERFORMING HR SYSTEMS 412

PRINCIPLES OF HIGH-PERFORMING HR SYSTEMS 415
External Fit: Aligning HR Activities with HR Challenges 415 • Internal Fit: Aligning HR Activities with One Another 416 • Deadly Combinations 417 • Powerful Connections 417 • Aligning HR Systems and Employees' Contributions 417

MANAGING THE EMPLOYMENT PORTFOLIO 419
Strategic Value 419 • Uniqueness 420 • Mapping Your Employment Portfolio 421 • Core Employees 421 • Job-Based Employees 422 • Contract Workers 422 • Alliance Partners 422

EVALUATING YOUR HR SYSTEM: THE HR SCORECARD 423
Step 1: identify Your Firm's Strategic Performance Drivers 424 • Step 2: Evaluate Your Firm's External Alignment 424 • Translate the Strategic Performance Drivers into HR Deliverables 424 • Evaluating the Alignment of HR Deliverables with the Strategic Performance Drivers 425 • Step 3: Evaluate Your Firm's Internal Alignment 425 • Evaluating the Alignment of the HR Practices with the HR Deliverables 425 • Evaluating the Alignment Among the Firm's HR Practices 427