Humberto Cedeno

Verlag Dr. Köster
Berlin

A 254167
INDEX

1. DEDICATION.................................................................5

2. CHAPTER I  INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY .........................6

3. CHAPTER II 1972-1979: THE IRAQI NATIONALIZATION AND
   THE FIRST OIL SHOCK OF 1973...................................... 11
   • The Ba'th Party.......................................................... 11
   • The uncooperative relationship between the Iraq Petroleum
     Company and Baghdad before 1972...................................14
   • The Oil Nationalization of 1972 and its consequences in Iraq...........17
   • The first years of the Oil Nationalization in Iraq
     and some socio-economic results....................................21
   • The Arab-Israeli Conflict, the subsequent First Oil Shock of 1973
     and the reaction of the West...........................................23
   • 1979: Saddam and Khomeini take over in Iraq and Iran respectively
     after a turbulent decade..................................................34

   (The Fall of Iran’s Shah and the War with Iraq).....................38
   • Saddam increases his personal control with USSR support.............38
   • USSR goals in the area..................................................39
   • The war Iran-Iraq and the US - and the USSR interests...............40
   • Iraq's military failure..................................................45
   • Iraq receives support from West and East................................46
   • The Progression of the Iraqi Oil Industry 1979-1986:
     The failure of OPEC's price strategy...................................48

   (The collapse of the Oil Prices)......................................53
   • OPEC on its knees.......................................................53
   • The Progression of the Iraqi Oil Industry 1986-1989:
     The oil price collapse................................................55
   • 1988: The Iraqi Pyrrhic victory......................................63

- Brief introduction ........................................................................................................... 66
- The Reasons for the Iraqi Invasion of Kuwait ............................................................... 67
- The Consequences of the Invasion of Kuwait ............................................................... 79
- Domestic and International reactions to and opinions of the Invasion of Kuwait ......... 82
- The Liberation of Kuwait:
- Operations "Desert Shield" and "Desert Storm" ......................................................... 86
- The Progression of the Iraqi Oil Industry: 1990-1996: Closure and recovery .......... 92

- 1996: Iraq restarts oil exports. Saddam's political attitude .......................................... 105
- 1998: The failed UN-Nuclear Inspections and Saddam's ambitions ......................... 108
- The Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) ............................................................... 113
- Saddam's connections to International Terrorism ...................................................... 115
- Iraq's security and military resources ......................................................................... 122
- Some reactions to the War's planning in and outside the US ..................................... 127
- The opinion in Germany about the Iraq War .............................................................. 131
- Operation Iraqi Freedom ............................................................................................ 134
- The Progression of the Iraqi Oil Industry 1996-2003 ................................................ 138
  - 1996: The return of Iraqi oil under a UN-agreement ................................................. 138
  - 1997: The production race of Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Venezuela ............................. 143
  - 1998: The collapse of the Oil Prices because of the production race between Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Venezuela .............................................. 146
  - 1999: OPEC and the Iraqi Oil production both recover .......................................... 154
  - 2000: OPEC and Saddam's economical and political power consolidate ............... 159
• 2002: Saddam and Bush's diplomatic battles ........................................167
• 2003: Iraqi Oil expansion plans, in spite of imminent war .................170

8. CHAPTER VII: CONCLUSION .................................................................................175

9. ANNEXES .................................................................................................................181

• Annex I. The divisions of the Iraq National Oil Company (INOC) ..........181
• Annex II. Chronology of the Iraq Oil Situation 1948-1972 ......................182
• Annex III. Chronology of some Oil Deals in the term 1972-1979 ............184
• Annex IV. Chronology of some Oil Deals of Iraq in the Period 1980-1985 .................................................................185
• Annex V. Chronology of some Oil Deals in the period 1986-1989 ............186
• Annex VIII. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 1996 ..................187
• Annex IX. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 1997 .....................189
• Annex X. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 1998 .......................190
• Annex XI. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 1999 .....................190
• Annex XII. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 2000 ....................191
• Annex XIII. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 2001 ...................191
• Annex XII. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 2002 ...................192
• Annex XIII. Chronology of Oil deals of Iraq in the year 2003 .................192
• Annex XIV. 1989's Chronology of Iraq's Reconstruction .......................193
• Annex XV. Chronology of the Iraqi invasion on Kuwait of 1990 .............194
• Annex XVI. Chronology of the UN-Resolutions to the Iraqi invasion of 1990 .................................................................195

10. GLOSSARY ............................................................................................................196

11. LITERATURE .........................................................................................................198